Milk Strike Collapses in Western New York

Music Festival Seeking $100,000 Fund for '57

The Empire State Music Festival at Ellenville which was launched in 1955 and won immediate national and international recognition will continue this summer if an emergency appeal for $100,000 is successful, it was learned today.

It is expected that the appeal for funds will be launched Friday night in New York city on a television program by Mike Wallace, chairman of the festival's advisory board and Basil Rathbone, who starred in the festival's production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" last year.

'56 Season Hailed

The festival has hailed unanimously as a major national and artistic cultural event in 1956, its second season. Plans for the coming year indicate that the third annual festival will be more brilliant and creative than ever—if funds are available to permit its opening July 4 for its five week season.

Mr. Wallace urged the public to respond generously and quickly to the emergency appeal for funds by saying, "This great cultural activity must not be allowed to die. The importance of the Empire State Music Festival to the people of New York and, indeed, to music lovers throughout the country and the world, cannot be overestimated.

Attracted 64,525

"Last year, in addition to a full and varied program, the Festival offered the American premieres of two musical masterpieces: The dance-music composition by Villa-Lobos and Jose Limon based on Eugene O'Neill's 'The Emperor Jones' which was commissioned by the Festival; and Carl Orff's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' with Basil Rathbone and Red Buttons, and with Leopold Stokowski conducting the Symphony of the Air. These brilliant productions, and the others on the Festival's 1956 program, were attended by 64,-

BPW Asks Water Be In First

Opposes Service When Road Fixed

A move by the Board of Public Works, at a meeting last night, seeks to prevent water-service installations in the city, especially in new developments, after street work is completed.

It was decided that those who failed to put in water installation first would be listed on the tax roll for amounts involved, and costs for such work would be collected in that way.

12th Ward Cited

Water service installations, it was noted, were made after new streets were built in areas of the 12th ward in recent months, and the board's action last night sought to prevent repetitions of such procedures.

Special assessments, tentatively compiled, of installations of sanitary sewer lines in Jarvis street, Clifton avenue near Meade street, and Florence street, between Stephan and Abbey streets, were referred to Corporation Counsel James J. Abernethy for final legal preparation and adoption.

Bids Authorized

Plans for similar work on Lounsbery Place between Mountain View and Grand View avenues, as submitted by City Engineer Arthur F. Hallinan, were approved, and he was authorized to advertise for bids.

A request by the Bongartz Pharmacy, 358 Broadway, to erect a marque in front of the store was granted.

The board approved on a provisional basis the appointment of Charles R. Johnson, 66 South Manor avenue as an engineers' aide in the city's engineering department.

C of C Opposes Move

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP) — A spokesman for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce said today the proposed extension of the minimum wage law to cover some retail and service employes "will have an inflationary impact." Eugene B. Sydnor Jr., of Richmond, Va., president of a chain of department stores, told a Senate Labor Subcommittee in prepared testimony: "Present proposals to extend the coverage are particularly untimely in view of the many admonitions of President Eisenhower and others since the first of the year regarding the present dangers of inflation."

New Jersey Boycott Is Continuing

Tri-State Move Loses Momentum

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—A strike by milk farmers for higher prices collapsed today in western New York.

Although the three-state boycott against dealers appeared to be losing momentum generally, dairymen in New Jersey insisted their strike still was "going 100 per cent."

Lack Big Support

State police and court action and a lack of backing by big dairy groups confronted the strikers.

In western New York, strike activity ended and all dealers in the area were receiving normal deliveries.

Developments yesterday put a damper on the four-day-old stoppage of milk supplies called by the Tri-State Master Dairy Farmers Guild, an organization of about 3,500 producers. The guild seeks the cooperation of the 44,500 producers in New York Pennsylvania, and New Jersey. The Federal Milk Marketing Administration said 5,-600 producers are taking part and 58 out of 381 milk processing plants have been affected.

Violence Is Checked

State police in the three states put a check on violence with emergency patrols protecting milk plants and their truck drivers.

In Allegany, N. Y., a local official of the striking dairymen's organization predicted the strike in western New York would be over by today.

"When the troopers moved in and escorted the trucks into the plants, that just about cleaned us up," he said.

Vote to Stay Out

In Albany, N. Y., last night the Dairy Farmers of America—which claims a membership of more than 3,000 farmers in New York, New Hampshire and Vermont—voted to stay out of the current milk stoppage. The group said New York's state agriculture commissioner, Daniel J. Carey, has promised to relay their complaint on current prices to the federal department of agriculture.

At Syracuse, N. Y., Edmund F. Cooke, the general manager of an 8,000-member milk cooperative, said intimidation was the main reason for the withholding of milk by farmers. Cooke, of the Mutual Federation of Indenpendent Cooperatives, said in a statement: "As near as we can ascertain, there is no spontaneous

President, Mollet Are Confident

Reaffirm Stand On Suez Travel

Jerusalem, Israeli Sector, Feb. 28 (AP)—A government official today denied reports that Israel has undertaken to withdraw troops from the Gaza Strip and Gulf of Aqaba area within 48 hours.

Optimism Questioned

He said there is no reason for over-optimism about the present U. S.-Israeli talks on the problem.

The official's statement followed a report from Washington that the United States, France and Israel had agreed on a formula for prompt withdrawal of Israeli troops from the two disputed areas and their replacement by United Nations forces.

Leaders Complete Three-Day Talks

President Eisenhower and French Premier Guy Mollet, meanwhile, today expressed "common conviction" that a solution in the Middle East "can be achieved by peaceful means, in conformity with the principles of justice and international law."

Ending three days of talks aimed in large part at repair of Franco-American relations, Eisenhower and Mollet in a joint statement reaffirmed a United Nations declaration of last October calling for "free and open transit" through the Suez Canal "without discrimination."

The President and the French premier made no reference in the communique to mounting hopes for withdrawal of Israeli forces from the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aqaba area without resort to UN sanctions against Israel.

See Peaceful Solution

Their statement devoted only one brief paragraph to the Middle East crisis. It said:

"With reference to the Middle East, they (Eisenhower and Mollet) stated their common conviction that solution to the problems of the area can be achieved by peaceful means, in conformity with the principles of justice and international law."

On a related Mid-East issue, the statement said:

"With regard to the question of the future status of the Suez

4-Point Program Recommended

Realtors are Told Planning Is Vital

"Operation Protection," a four-point program in planning for the future, was recommended in an address to the Ulster County Real Estate Board Wednesday night by Richard N. Groves of Syracuse, president of the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards.

"Planning will protect our commodity — real estate — in which 65 per cent of Americans are stockholders! It will protect our communities and prevent the ghost towns of the past. It will protect our future—nationally as well as locally."

Lists Four Points

He listed these four points:

1. Get into this subject with both feet; be a participant in planning. Point the way.

2. Encourage — no, demand — that plans be made which are not piecemeal, momentary, expediencies.

3. Fight for an absolute essential: The broadening of our tax base!

4. Work for a master plan which is far-seeing and which embraces all the fundamental needs of the healthy, orderly, progressive community.

"We must look ahead 50 years! We must provide for flexibility but we must project planning past the year 2,000 because that's the only way order and preparation can be achieved," the speaker told some 50 members of the local board at its annual meeting in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Under his first point Mr. Groves urged that realtors donate their "vast knowledge" to the preparation through every possible means — school boards, town boards, planning councils, city governments, urban renewal agencies, slum clearance projects, etc.

Urges Sound Analysis

He urged a sound analysis of our present position, what we have, what plans and echelons of authority and facilities are available, what the economic picture is and what our potential is—the encouragement of a stock-taking in order to locate weaknesses, etc.

In connection with his recommendation of a broadened tax base Mr. Groves asked how much longer real estate could carry "more and more of the burden of progress. We must soon remove the onus from owning property, which, in itself, is major bulwark against Communism." He said there should be at least a county tax base. Mr. Groves recommended broadened, soundly-planned expansion of tax bases which, he said, would be of vital help in showing the way ahead.

He urged that the "fragmented program of a thousand plans

O&W Operating Deficits Are Cut

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Receivers of the bankrupt New York, Ontario & Western railway have filed in federal court a report indicating they cut operating deficits by one-third since they took over Feb. 9.

The savings were included in a progress report made by the receivers, James B. Kilsheimer III and Jacob Grumet, to Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan.

After receiving the report yesterday, the judge said the receivers and Robert McGraw, general manager of the railroad, had done "a splendid job."

Ryan said the NYO&W would have been closed down two weeks ago if it had not been for the enthusiasm of the receivers.

"It's going to be treated as a business proposition," the judge added. "If the railroad doesn't pay, it's going to be closed up."

C. B. Marr, chairman of a group of bondholders of the line, commented that "the accomplishment of these receivers in two weeks time is fabulous." He added: "In six weeks time they'll have it in the black. They should be congratulated . . ."

The judge set another hearing on the NYO&W's progress for next Thursday. He has granted several postponements of a deadline for the raising of an emergency fund of $250,000 to keep the line operating at least temporarily while further efforts are made to sell it as a going concern. Most of that amount has been pledged so far by users of the freight railroad and communities it serves.

The receivers told the judge in their report that a January operating deficit of $149,000 had been cut by $50,000 through savings by layoffs of 133 employes in the past two weeks and through reducing other costs.

The report foresaw "additional economies" next week, but it added that an increase in freight business is the only hope for the railroad to survive.

Mt. Marion, Ruby Vote Late March

The vote on a $30,000 bond issue for the purchase of new fire fighting equipment for Mt. Marion-Ruby Fire District will be held during the week of March 25, according to Louis A. Di Donna, Kingston attorney representing the district.

Although no definite date had been set for the vote, the fire commissioners met Wednesday night and discussed the matter. They were advised that Mr. Di Donna was preparing the necessary papers for the bond issue and possibly a firm date would be announced at the next meeting of the commissioners, Wednesday, March 13.

May Call Meeting

Mr. Di Donna told the Freeman that if the papers are ready before that time, he would suggest that the commissioners hold a special session to approve the bond issue and prepare for the vote of the taxpayers of the district.

Nearly 75 residents attending a meeting last week at Mt. Marion Inn favored a vote on the proposed $30,000 bond issue.

The district will propose the purchase of two pumper trucks, one for Ruby fire station and another for Mt. Marion. These will replace the two surplus army fire trucks in use since the fire company was organized in 1947. The company itself owns

Bloc Pushes for Sanctions

Compromise Move On Israel Is Halted

United Nations, N. Y., Feb 28 (AP)—The U. S. delegation announced today Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had suspended his efforts to produce a compromise Middle East resolution pending the outcome of Washington negotiations.

A spokesman said:

"The resolution on which we were working is in suspense. Whether there will be further developments along this line in the future, I am not prepared to say"

Started Tuesday

Lodge had been in almost continuous consultation with other delegations since Tuesday in the hope of getting agreement on a resolution which would get Israeli forces out of the Gaza Strip and Egypt without resorting to sanctions.

There was no comment from the U. S. delegation on the talks between Secretary of State Dulles and Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir and Ambassador Abba Eban.

The suspension of Lodge's efforts came as Asian, Arab and Soviet bloc delegates notified the UN that they would press ahead with their demands for sanctions.

Early Debate Off

A scheduled morning debate on the Israeli-Egyptian dispute was cancelled, but at least five speakers—all in favor of sanctions—said they were prepared to take the floor at an afternoon session of the General Assembly at 3 p. m. (EST).

Those listed to speak were Bulgaria, Jordan, Iraq, Indonesia and the Soviet Urkraine. All are known to favor sanctions unless

A public hearing will be held in the Common Council chamber, city hall at 7:30 p. m., today on applications of three bus companies for authorized change of routes in conjunction with the city's uptown one-way street pattern, and for discontinuance by one line of the use of downtown streets.

The hearing will be conducted by First Ward Alderman Hirschell Mayes as chairman of the Common Council's railroad and bus committee. The other committee members are Arthur Smith, eighth ward and William S. Keyser, second ward.

Hurley Zoning Plan Is Scored as Restrictive

A proposed zoning ordinance was criticized as "highly restrictive beyond all reasonable limits" at a meeting of the Hurley Town Board Tuesday night.

J. J. Carroll told the board he differed with claims of Town Attorney Francis X. Tucker that the ordinance was "permissive," as Mr. Tucker had described it at recent public hearings.

He said he had no objection to zoning as such to prohibit objectionable projects, the building of potential slum areas, etc., but the ordinance, as presented at public hearing, "went far beyond these areas and attempted to limit each and every land and home owner in the use and sale of their property."

Mr. Carroll asked that the town board give publicity to the contemplated hearing on the proposed ordinance and have copies of the ordinance distributed to the people at least 10 days before the hearing.

Mr. Carroll also objected to that part of the zoning commission report in which the commission indicated that there was unanimous support for the ordinance. He said that he had attended the informational hearings, both at Hurley and West Hurley, and that a large number of people had spoken against some sections of the proposed zoning ordinance. He said he was opposed to the ordinance as it had been submitted at the hearings.

The report and ordinance were submitted to the board by Donald Briggs, chairman of the Hurley Zoning Commission.

Mrs. Ethel Davis of West Hurley asked why more publicity

Rent Controls Appear Sure Until June 1959

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP) — Three moves appeared certain on New York's rent front today as the dust cleared from a raucuous, sometimes rowdy, seven-hour public hearing.

Controls will be continued for the next two years—to June 1, 1959. High-priced apartments will be decontrolled. Some relief will be given landlords of one and two-family houses.

Most of this was assured before two trainloads of New York city residents, mostly landlords, converged on the capitol yesterday for the hearing, called by the State Commission on Rents.

An estimated 2,500 persons marched up busy State street to the tune of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

While their leaders moved into an already crowded assembly chamber, hundreds of others hovered outside, shouting at a cordon of hefty state troopers who stood shoulder-to-shoulder to block the entrance.

Landlords chanted "Down with Rent Control" and exchanged insults with tenants in the crowd.

Inside, the debate was sharp, and lengthy. Jeers and cheers greeted exchanges.

Rent Administrator Robert C. Weaver, defending Gov. Harriman's rent program, struck at Republican proposals to relax controls.

Weaver, the leadoff speaker, assailed a suggestion by Assembly Majority Leader Joseph F.

GOP Chances of Retaking Senate Helped by Texas

Dallas, Feb. 28 (AP)—Republican chances of recapturing control of the U. S. Senate by winning Texas' special senatorial election were considerably brighter today after the State Senate in Austin virtually killed a bill designed to insure a Democratic victory.

Thad Hutcheson of Houston, the lone GOP candidate in the April 2 election, said he considered the Senate action had killed the bill. He called it a "victory for the people of Texas over political bosses."

The Senate's action was a refusal to suspend the rules to take up a measure by Rep. Joe Pool of Dallas. Pool's bill would require a runoff election between the top two candidates if no candidate gets a majority over his combined opposition.

The bill was almost unanimously supported by Democratic leaders who fear their party's votes would be split among the large Democratic field, enabling Hutcheson to win his virtually solid GOP backing. Hutcheson is the lone Republican in the 12-man race. Under present state law, the high man wins in a special election.

Backers of the bill claim that

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Shoppers searching for a bargain at the meat counters of their favorite supermarket or other store this weekend will find once again that the best buys are the various cuts of beef.

Beef ran second to pork for many years as the No. 1 meat eaten by Americans, but in recent months beef has been far more plentiful than pork. The result, as might be expected, has been a series of bargains all along the price line.

Steaks Featured

Sirloin, porterhouse and top round steaks will be featured in many stores this weekend. Top round and rib roasts also will be favored, along with the less expensive varieties such as chuck roast and tongue. One chain is featuring ground beef at 29 cents a pound—the lowest price since last August—at its stores in the New York metropolitan area.

Chicken and pork also will be widely featured in some places, while a number of stores also will have bargains on fish. These include smelts, cod fillets and shad.

The fish, of course, will be displayed more prominently in the next few weeks because of Lent, which runs from Ash Wednesday, March 6, until Easter Sunday, April 21.

Tuna fish will be the biggest supply item among canned fish for Lent, with the industry expecting to move two million cases from store shelves during the period. The Tuna Research Foundation is joining with macaroni and dairy companies in a promotional drive.

March Is Egg Month

Another concurrent promotional drive is the Department of Agriculture's labeling of March as egg month. Eggs are at a seasonal production peak now and retail prices generally are at low levels. The department says an egg a day is a good rule to follow when they're plentiful.

Western iceberg lettuce, storage potatoes and such root crops as beets, parsnips and turnips are rated by produce experts as the best buys at vegetable counters. Danish and red cabbage from fall and winter crops in the east also are outstanding buys.

Vegetable Outlook

Onions, western carrots, sweet potatoes, escarole, endive, new beets, from Texas, spinach, new red potatoes from Florida and Idaho's russet baking potatoes all are listed as good buys. Pascal celery, grown in California, Arizona and Florida, all moved into the good buy class this week as shipments increased.

Cauliflower, broccoli and eggplant are only moderate in cost this week, moving up a bit in price, while Florida's yellow sweet corn and yellow squash have gotten less expensive. They're not yet in the good buy class, however.

Grapefruit and riper varieties of eastern apples have the most appealing price tags at fruit counters. Temple, Valencia and pineapple oranges; late season tangerines; California navel oranges and lemons; Washington apples and Idaho pears also are priced to catch the housewife's eye.

For those shoppers looking for something special at prices ranging from moderate to luxurious, honeydew melons, nectarines, plums, seedless grapes and peaches from Chile are available in some areas. Fresh pears from Argentina are in the same price class.

Dies of Kitchen Burns

Silver Creek, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—A 66-year-old woman who refused medical treatment when she suffered third degree burns while cooking in her home Feb. 7, died of her injuries last night, police reported. Police Chief Martin O. Pecoraro said Mrs. Elsie Tuck was burned when her clothing caught fire while she was cooking supper on a gas stove. Pecoraro said the woman refused to let her husband, Frank, 66, call a doctor. The police chief said that the authorities were unaware of the situation until last night when neighbors telephoned police headquarters and said there appeared to be something wrong at the house.

STAND BY TO RUN — The "Volcano of Fire" (1), 30 miles west of Guatemala City, has erupted violently and continues to belch flames and smoke, with lava slowly rising. Resignation Accepted

New York, Feb. 28 (AP) — Brooklyn College has accepted the resignation of Dr. Harry Slochower, an associate professor who twice had been suspended in Communist probe cases.

With acceptance of the resignation yesterday departmental proceedings against him on charges of conduct unbecoming a member of the college staff were closed out by a three-man trial committee appointed by the city board of higher education. The board administers New York city's municipal colleges, including Broklyn College. Slochower, 57, had been scheduled to go on departmental trial.

New College for Teachers

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—The state will open a new teachers college on Long Island in the fall, Gov. Harriman announced today. The governor said he had been informed by the State University Board of Trustees that it would be "feasible" to open the college in temporary quarters at Planting Fields, near Oyster Bay. Harriman said he would ask for an additional $155,000 in his supplemental budget requests to finance the move.

A social service thrift store will open in the downtown area on Friday, it was announced today by the Salvation Army.

Capt. Foster J. Meitrott of the local corps said it will be open daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the corner of Hasbrouck avenue and East Strand.

It is to be part of the SA program for rehabilitation, work therapy, and to serve the economic needs of the community.

Goods collected by the Salvation Army in the area and repaired by persons in the rehabilitation program will be offered for sale to low income families, Captain Meitrott said.

The store will also serve as source of supply in cases where families are affected by floods or other disasters that destroy their household goods or clothing.

CONGRATULATIONS 4-H'ERS

The observance of National 4-H Week, March 2 to 9, affords us the opportunity of calling attention to the constructive and wholesome activities of these young people. Too little is known generally about the normal and energetic enterprise of the vast majority of our young people.

In Ulster County 650 4-H'ers participate in the program, which is directed by over 80 4-H Club Local Leaders who are responsible for training the young people in better methods in agriculture and homemaking. During the week window displays of 4-H Club projects and activities may be seen throughout the county. A county-wide Demonstration Day on March 9 will climax the week's program.

More than two million young people throughout the country are members of these community groups, which are organized for the purpose of learning through doing. They are designed to teach better practices in agriculture and home making and the finer and more significant things in life, looking toward the development of wholesome, industrious, public spirited men and women. Boys and girls 10 to 21 years old form its membership.

"Improving Family and Community Living" is the theme and will be featured during the observance.

Some 57,000 club members in New York State can point to 130,000 projects in agriculture and homemaking the past year.

We congratulate the 4-H'ers and their leaders, who are making an outstanding contribution to society.

COAL BY THE SQUIRT

This country already has undergone several transportation revolutions, and it may be in for still another.

In eastern Ohio a 108-mile pipeline has started to carry a regular flow of coal (mixed with water and crushed to form slurry) from a strip mine directly to a retail outlet on Lake Erie's southern shore.

If this frankly experimental line works out to be practical both technically and economically, the idea may win wide adoption not only for the shipment of coal but for transport of such other raw materials as iron ore (in pellet form), crushed limestone, pulpwood and whatever else might be borne along in a liquid mixture.

On paper at least, substantial savings would seem possible from this kind of handling. The big question would appear to be whether in the long run the cost of preparing the fluid mixture of solid materials and water will prove lower than the charges that go with conventional handling and shipment by other means.

If it does, then this new revolution may really take hold. And that could mean new problems for the important rail and trucking industries. Few revolutions are unmixed blessings.

DANGEROUS RESTRICTION

This is the time of year when Mr. American groans and wishes that the income tax were abolished. He would get his wish if Rep. Clare E. Hoffman had his way. Hoffman has introduced a Constitutional amendment which would abolish the income tax after five years, the interval presumably being meant to let Uncle Sam make other revenue arrangements.

He would need to do so, because in 1954 the income tax brought in about 32 billion dollars out of our total receipts of 73 billions. This would have to be made up somehow, and the chances are excellent that it would come out of people less able to pay than are the present payers of the income tax.

A fair question is, Why a Constitutional amendment? The income tax could be abolished at any time by an act of Congress. The only purpose of a Constitutional provision would be to make it almost impossible to resort again to the income tax if this proved desirable. This seems like a dangerous restriction on Uncle Sam. If war should come, he would need added revenue in a hurry.

'These Days'

PRESIDENTIAL SERVICE

The first task of a President is to be sure that he is well serviced. Obviously it would have been impossible for President Eisenhower to have delivered his speech on the problems of Israel had he been adequately serviced, for the essential proposition of that speech was an untenable one, namely, that although Soviet Russia committed international crimes, nothing can be done about Soviet Russia because of the enormous size and power of that country and because Russia possesses the veto in the Security Council. Nevertheless it is possible to punish a country which is smaller and less powerful than Soviet Russia and which does not possess the power of veto in the Security Council. These are the President's exact words:

"No one deplores more than I the fact that the Soviet Union ignores the resolutions of the United Nations. Also, no nation is more vigorous than is the United States in seeking to exert moral pressure against the Soviet Union, which by reason of its size and power and by reason of its veto in the Security Council, is relatively impervious to other types of sanctions.

"The United States and other free nations are making clear by every means at their command the evil of Soviet conduct in Hungary. It would be indeed, a sad day if the United States ever felt that it had to subject Israel to the same type of moral pressure as is being applied to the Soviet Union."

On February 21, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Maxwell Rabb, Secretary of the Cabinet, met with eight citizens who are influential Jews at the request of the White House. A press story was given out suggesting that a distinction was being made between Zionists and non-Zionists and giving the impression that the eight were non-Zionists, which happened to be true. All of them are distinguished for their services to Israel, particularly in the matter of fund raising and the sale of Israel bonds in this country. Again, there was evidence of poor service and inaccurate information to the President.

It was suggested in the news stories that were given out that these gentlemen would be primed to bring pressure on Israel, which they could not do. The word, pressure, was toned down in subsequent releases to the press. The gentlemen were embarrassed by the entire proceedings and gave out their own interviews which clearly indicated that they would continue to raise funds for Israel, John Foster Dulles and Maxwell Rabb notwithstanding.

Another instance of bad servicing is undoubtedly the witnessing of Henry Byroade before the Senate committees studying the Middle Eastern proposals of the President. Byroade is a State Department perennial who went with General George Marshall to China as an expert and so expertized that General Marshall has since been in a dilemma to explain how it happened that a long truce he advocated benefited the Chinese Reds. Then Byroade was taken off the Far East and eventually landed in Egypt where he should have known that Nasser had made a separate deal with the Russians to exchange arms for cotton and where he should have known that Nasser planned to seize the Suez Canal.

When he appeared before the Senate committees as an expert witness, Byroade seemed to some Senators, to hold the view that the United States should finance Egypt so that that country can buy more arms from Soviet Russia. It sounds queer as one says it, but some of the Senators gathered that impression.

The President of the United States has an exceedingly difficult position and when he is inadequately serviced, errors are made which often are of such a magnitude that they never can be corrected. The President should have carefully gathered and evaluated data from which the fat of emotionalism and prejudice has been cut away. No other man presently possesses such powers as the President of the United States and therefore no other man can make such monumental mistakes.

The $72,000,000,000 budget, which if everything were included would come closer to $100,000,000,000, is an error of judgment which even Mr. Eisenhower's Secretary of the Treasury and friend, George Humphrey, had to denounce. That budget can probably be cut by $700,000,000, but the way it stands, it makes peace more devastating than war.

MATERNAL STRESS IN PREGNANCY

I think we all realize some of the anxious thoughts which cross the expectant mother's mind as to whether her baby will be born "perfect" or will it be born with some "defect." For a long time it has been assumed that most defects present at birth are determined by chance arrangements of genes and chromosomes. The chromosomes carry the hereditary factors (genes) and are present in a constant number in each species. In man there are 48 in each cell except in the mature ovum and sperm where the number is halved. A complete set of 24 is inherited from each parent.

However, we are told by Dr. T. H. Ingalls in the Journal of the American Medical Association that the results of extensive studies carried on at the Harvard School of Public Health during the past ten years indicate that diseases of the expectant mother and other critical stresses occurring at certain stages during pregnancy are responsible for a majority of these defects present at birth.

How can stresses account for these defects? Of course, it is not possible to experiment with humans but, as has been known for a long time, the constitution of the mouse is very similar to that of man in an extremely large number of ways. Hence it was possible to study abnormal births in mice by inducing a certain stress at various stages during pregnancy.

The particular stress used was lack of oxygen in the blood. It was shown in 1947 that lack of oxygen is a definite cause of deformities present at birth and it was recognized that oxygen deficiency is a type of stress which can be rather precisely regulated. One device used to produce defects in the offspring of pregnant mice is a low pressure chamber in which the mothers are kept for five hours at atmospheric pressures similar to those at altitudes of 25,000 to 30,000 feet.

By this means it was possible to change both the timing and intensity of the stress so that its effect at different stages in the development of the embryo or fetus could be studied.

What was learned? It was found from these experiments that after the first week of development, a regular pattern of congenital (present at birth) deformities can be produced by critical stress. As an example, fusion of the ribs was induced on the ninth day of pregnancy, the period that was also critical for defects of the brain, skull and backbone. The same stress on the 15th day resulted in cleft palate, and if exerted near the end of the pregnancy, it caused partial or complete removal of the eyelids.

Of course, we must remember that there are many types of stress, aside from oxygen deficiency. Thus cleft palate is produced by any of a number of stresses—X-ray, vitamin deficiency and cortisone intoxication—provided that the immediate or delayed effects are operating at the same times when the two halves of the palate fuse, on the fifteenth day of pregnancy.

Expectant mothers should be protected as much as possible from such stresses as surgical operations if not of emergency nature, major dental procedures, unnecessary airplane flights. Diabetes should be brought under control before the earliest stages of pregnancy.

The Secret Is Cooperation

Washington News

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington — (NEA) — Checking the records of the 20 members just named to its national committee by the 16th Congress of the Communist Party, U. S. A., in New York, shows that it is still the same old Moscow-directed outfit.

All the stuff put out about the American commies splitting off from the Kremlin line because of Soviet suppression in Hungary were proved wrong when radio Moscow gave its blessings to the C.P.-U.S.A. and all its convention works and resolutions. Any propaganda to the contrary is considered a blind and a cover up.

Twelve of the 20 national committeemen were around when the party held its last congress seven year ago.

They are: William Z. Foster, Eugene Dennis, Benjamin J. Davis, Fred Morris Fine, John Gates, Charles Buddy Loman, James Edward Jackson, Jr., and Sidney Steinberg (Stein) of New York; David Davis (Dubensky) of Philadelphia, Claude Lightfoot of Chicago, Carl Edwin Ross (Rasi) of Minneapolis and Carl Winter of Detroit.

Of the eight new members elected to the Communist national committee, Doxey Wilkerson of New York, director of the Jefferson School of Social Science, is also an old-time U. S. communist.

The other seven new members are Mrs. Anna Barry of Denver, John Cyril Hellman of Butte, Mrs. Dorothy Ray Healey Connelly and Mrs. Charlene Alexander Mitchell of Los Angeles, Alexander Richmond of San Francisco, George Blake Charney and Earl Dunham of New York.

Perhaps the most striking fact about this line-up is that only four of the 20 have no record of Smith Act indictment, trial or conviction of conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government.

They are Foster, who was excused from trial because of ill health; Durham, a Youth League leader in the midwest; Loman and Wilkerson, prominent in Communist work among Negroes.

Five of the national committeemen have served time for Smith Act convictions—four for five years, and one, Rasi, for two years. The others are Ben Davis, Dennis, Gates and Winter.

THIS FACT HAS RAISED the question of how much good the Smith Act convictions do. They may harass the party. It was definitely in the doldrums while these five were imprisoned. But now that they are out, they are right back in business at the same old stand, unrepentant, unreformed, bitter as ever.

Eight other national committeemen have been tried, found guilty of Smith Act violations, and sentenced for two to five years. They are Mrs. Barry, Charney, David Davis, Fine, Mrs. Connelly, Jackson, Steinberg and Richmond. All these have appealed their convictions. Appeals for Mrs. Connelly, Richmond and Lightfoot are now before the U. S. Supreme Court.

Three other national committeemen who have already served time for Smith Act convictions have also been reindicted under the membership clause of the law, and are awaiting second trials. They are Dennis, Gates and Ben Davis. In all, just half of the national committeemen are now free on bond, ranging from $10,000 to $30,000.

THESE 10 HAVE ALL been Communists for over 20 years. Foster has been one for 40. The others have been active in Communist causes for from five to 18 years apiece.

The significant point here is that the party is still operating in spite of all the crusading against it in the last 10 years.

Membership is hard to prove, for members no longer carry cards. Total membership is still believed to be about 20,000, where it has been for the last five years. It isn't growing, but it isn't shrinking.

Danger to Liberties Is Seen In Clinton Bias Injunction

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Feb. 28—It is a matter of news importance when the American Civil Liberties Union, known for its persistent defense of "liberal" causes, criticizes a federal court injunction in a "desegregation" case.

After the Supreme Court of the United States issued its order throwing out state laws that permitted segregation, the school authorities of Clinton, Tenn., interpreted this to mean they had to bring about a forced association of the races and they complied with the court's order. But various people in the town spoke in criticism and some of them allegedly attempted to interfere with the school board's operation. A riot took place near the school grounds, which should have been handled by local police under state laws.

But the Federal judge issued an injunction of such broad scope that the Department of Justice arrested sixteen citizens and made them defendants on the ground that they had engaged in a conspiracy to violate the injunction. Some of them had merely criticized the injunction and the court decision. Others happened to witness the disturbance. One of them merely offered bail for a defendant and was promptly arrested as a co-conspirator.

"Mere Advocacy" Defended

"Mere advocacy, in the Clinton case," says the American Civil Liberties Union statement, "urging the ignoring of the law or judicial orders, should not be prohibited. As we said at the beginning of this statement, the ACLU supports the Supreme Court decision and urges all citizens to obey it. But if some citizens choose to oppose the decision by peaceful means, through speech, they have the constitutional right to do so. Mere picketing to express a point of view, in the absence of intimidation, should not be enjoined. So we believe the blanket prohibition against picketing of the Clinton High School is invalid. Without direct incitement to definite acts of individual or joint obstructiveness or interference, coupled with a clear and present danger that these acts will take place immediately, the injunction is too broad and intereferes with free speech.

"However, the prohibition in the injunction as to overt acts of 'hindering' or 'obstructing' the integration order is different. Such overt acts cannot claim the protection of free speech. Whether or not such acts have occurred is a matter of proof to be determined at the contempt hearing."

This correspondent a few weeks ago called attention to this very defect in the court's injunction and also to the unlawful usurpation by a Federal court of a duty and task that should be performed by local police agencies and state law. There is no evidence that the persons arrested exercised any influence whatsoever on the school board or attempted to interfere with its operations in bringing about a forced association of pupils.

Called Usurpation

All that the citizens did was to criticize the injunction and the Supreme Court decision. When an altercation occurred some distance from the school building, it was certainly a usurpation of authority for a Federal court to attempt to apply an injunction to every citizen in the school district as to what he might say in his own home to his friends in criticism of forced association in the schools.

There are some rumors that the Department of Justice now regrets the arrests ordered under the Federal judge's injunction. In the first place, if the judge at the contempt trial charges conspiracy, he will have to convince the public that the conspirators selected a point in front of a police station to carry out their conspiracy to do an unlawful thing. This would be difficult. If they did not all participate and the preacher was struck by a man acting impulsively and, as he claims, because he was shoved aside by the preacher, it will be a hard thing to sentence the bystanders and make such a decision stand up on appeal. In any event, it is difficult to see how the judge can tie up this incident, which occurred some distance from the school, with a violation of his order prohibiting interference with pupils who attended the school.

Precedents Being Set

The American Civil Liberties Union has interested itself often in cases involving arrests for picketing in labor disputes and, as pointed out in these dispatches when the Clinton injunction was issued, precedents are being made which can rise to plague labor unions.

Under the Fourteenth Amendment, Congress is empowered to pass legislation to enforce the prohibition against abridgement by a state of the liberties and privileges of a citizen—the basis on which the Supreme Court denounced racial segregation in the schools. But Congress has never acted. The amendment is not self-executing, but contains a specific grant of power to Congress. Hence until Congress does act, neither the Supreme Court nor any lower court can do any legislating and at the same time obey the spirit of the Constitution itself. It is the obligation of the states to preserve order, and they have ample means to do so.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

I have received the names and "affiliations" of a few more union bosses who were included in a motley of parasites entertained by the Navy Department aboard the carrier Antietam as a ceremonial tribute of the national government at the close of the recent debauches of the AFL-CIO in Miami.

Charles S. Thomas, the secretary of the navy, through his official press agent, has admitted that the navy "had as its guests approximately 135 members of the Executive Council and executive officers of the AFL-CIO." He ignored a request for their names and the names of the unions which have the honor of paying their big salaries, without interruption during strikes or seasonal layoffs, and their expenses, which are in most cases outrageous.

I have dealt with the personal and political character of Joe Curran, the president of the CIO's National Maritime Union, whose inclusion among this mob was an affront of special poignancy to patriotic officers and men. They were required to come to attention as the senior officer "greeted and escorted the guests aboard ship." The "chief of information" of the Navy Department, striving to take Thomas off the hook, said the "honor" was shown to the uniform and the authority of the senior officer. That is an evasion of real truth although the statement by itself is not untrue. The fact is that this officer was put into the degrading position of having to show respect to Curran with his notorious record of pro-Communist activity and propaganda throughout the second war and to other unioneers who are not averse to association and collaboration with Curran. For a line on the navy's insulting indifference to the patriotism and dignity of those officers and men I refer to the fact that these other union parasites, knowing Curran's sordid record, nevertheless appointed him to their grotesque committee on ethics to cleanse the rackets of crooks and Communists.

The others thus far identified to me by a source outside the navy include James Hoffa, the Detroit unioneer who has muscled into the teamsters union alongside Dave Beck, the nominal president, and into other unions; Albert L. Hayes, of the machinists; Joe Keenan, of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers of the AFL; Dave Dubinsky, perpetual president-dictator of the garment workers, and Joseph A. Beirne, of the communications workers.

Hoffa is a Johnny-come-lately to the unions, with a multiple record in the police archives of Detroit. However, he and others of his Detroit circle have remarkable influence with the cops and prosecuting authorities and he has enjoyed practical immunity. The case on Hoffa is now developing in the investigation of the McClellan Committee of the Senate into the financial mysteries of the Teamsters' union. Thomas had no excuse to be ignorant of Hoffa's reputation when, by the Pentagon's order, this bunch was invited aboard.

There is no personal taint on Hayes, a fact which the others flaunt as a banner of virtue for the whole dirty game. However, the record of the International Association of Machinists is as bad as most others, and honors to Hayes trickle down to the goons on his picket lines. Navy intelligence could put the whole story on the secretary's desk in ten minutes.

Keenan's union has been notorious for years. Local 3 in New York has a lurid record including gun-play, sabotage and extortion and in Chicago the picturesque operations of Umbrella Mike Boyle are a legend of the politico-underworld phase of union racketeering.

Dubinsky's impudence in tossing millions into European and other foreign political activities is well known. For laghiappe, just lately, he finally had to get rid of Sam Berger, the boss of his union of truckers which to Dubinsky's own knowledge had been a filthy thing for many years. Dubinsky is a great hand for ethics, but he suffered Berger to stick around long after he was formally on warning.

Beirne is just a bureaucrat, but throughout the war the American Communications Association was a notorious Red racket, with Red wireless men planted aboard hundreds of American cargo vessels which were otherwise manned out of Joe Curran's Red Maritime Union.

The Navy's pretext for the Miami indignity was a belief that if the union parasites were not bidden to watch an anti-submarine operation their subjects scattered all over the country would have no way of knowing about these activities. The newspapers, television and radio would be incapable of telling the story. A more pitiful lie has never been concocted in the Pentagon. The real purpose was to propitiate the rackets and drum up financial and psychological political support for the new Republican party.

HotelCouncilAsks Wage Minimum Of $1.25 an Hour

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—The New York Hotel Trades Council has asked for a boost in hotel industry wage minimums to a basic $1.25 an hour.

The council appealed for upward revision on a statewide basis at a public hearing held yesterday by the State Hotel Minimum Wage Board.

Mrs. Julia Algase, legislative attorney for the council, which represents several unions of hotel workers, told the board that actual wages of most hotel employes in the state today are much above state minimums drawn up in 1952.

N. Y. Pays More

In New York city hotels, she said, employes now get more than the $1.25 suggested minimum.

In other areas, she said, existing minimums now range from 50 cents for "tipping" employes to 75 cents for those workers who do not receive tips.

She contended that minimums are as low as $8 a week in upstate hotels where tips, lodging and meals are added to the wages.

Mrs. Algase cited a 1956 state Labor Department survey which said that "typical" hotel employes earned $1.16 an hour, not counting tips or "wages in kind" —including meals, lodging or other non-money benefits.

Wouldn't Count Tips

She urged that the $1.25 minimum be applied on a statewide basis and to all employes regardless of whether they receive tips.

Mrs. Algase said that the geographical pay differential in the state should be eliminated on the ground that living costs have been "demonstrated to be essentially the same in all areas of the state."

She said "middle-aged women employes who live alone" would benefit especially in an upward revision of the minimum wage.

There were no spokesmen for hotel employers at the hearing.

Frieda F. Miller, board chairman, said the agency would make its recommendations to the State Labor Department after hearings in Buffalo March 6 and Syracuse March 7.

The nine-member board has employer, employe and public representation.

A movie on "SAGE" was shown by James W. Dargan through the courtesy of Edward O'Donnell of IBM, Kingston.

The tables were decorated in blue and gold, the Cub Scouting color and each Den group displayed a different centerpiece made by the den mother.

Guests of honor at the head table included the Rev. George Valastro, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, sponsoring institution; Nelson L. Carten, field Scout executive of Rip Van Winkle Council; Raymond Ruby, scoutmaster of Troop 36; Edward Flanagan, committeeman and Lawrence Spatz, committee chairman.

Following the Invocation by Father Valastro, a baked ham dinner was served.. The dinner was prepared by Robert Thornton with the help of den mothers, committeemen and the cubmaster.

Oversight

Dallas (AP) — The irritated suitor of a girl here reprimanded her in a letter for not writing to him and listed these five important points in letter writing: 1. Go to a store, buy envelopes, paper and pencil. 2. Buy a stamp. 3. Put some writing on the stationery. 4. Put it in an envelope, lick and seal envelope. 5. Find a mail box and mail the letter. His advice never got to his girl. It wound up in the dead letter office because he forgot to list a street address for the intended recipient.

Mushroom Seafood Pie Is Fine Meatless Party Dish

DEEP-SEA DELICACIES combine with broiled mushrooms in sauce under pastry fishes for gourmet party dish.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

In your Lenten special dinner-party files, this gourmet seafood dish deserves a place. It combines canned or frozen lobster tails, flaked white fish and broiled sliced mushrooms in a delicately flavored sauce. Over it spreads a pastry crust made with a package mix and grated Parmesan cheese.

Mushroom-Seafood Pie
(Makes 6 servings)

Two 8-ounce packages frozen South African rock lobster tails OR 2 6½-ounce cans rock lobster; 2 tablespoons butter; ¼ cup sherry or very well-seasoned chicken broth with a little lemon juice; 2 cups cooked, flaked white fish; 3 tablespoons butter; 2 tablespoons flour; 1½ cup rich milk or cream; 6-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms; salt; pepper; ½ package prepared pastry mix; 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese.

Cook lobster according to package directions if frozen lobster is used.

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in saucepan. Add sherry or broth and cook 1 minute. Add lobster and fish and allow to stand.

Melt remaining butter in saucepan. Add flour and blend thoroughly. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly. Add contents of can of mushrooms, blending well.

Add lobster and fish along with the sherry or broth. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Combine pastry mix and cheese and follow package directions for single pie crust. Cut design on crust or cut individual designs with a pastry wheel.

Grease a 9-inch cake pan or shallow 1½-quart casserole. Pour fish mixture into pan and cover with pastry.

Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 25 minutes, or until pastry is done and lightly browned.

Note: For extra interest, make pastry fish cutouts and use in place of pastry cover.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Mushroom-seafood pie, parsley boiled potatoes, green beans, French bread, butter or margarine, mixed green salad, oil and lemon juice, orange-grapefruit section cup, ready-mix sponge cake, coffee, tea, milk.

Teachers Discuss Legislative Bills

More than 75 members of the New York State Teachers' Association met Saturday in Peekskill to hear a discussion on current bills in the state legislature which would affect their pensions.

One of the bills discussed would enable the Governor to submit a referendum to groups of public employes under public state retirement systems at the present time to determine whether or not they wish to be covered by Social Security.

This would include teachers who are now contributing to the New York state teachers retirement system, it was reported. Other employes who would be affected would be those now under the state employes retirement system, New York city employes retirement system and the New York city teachers retirement system.

More Information Needed

Leading the discussion of the social security legislation was Dr. Arvid Burke, director of studies of the New York State Teachers Association, assisted by Dr. William Hageny, principal of Haldane Central School, Cold Spring, and Dr. J. E. Scott, superintendent of schools, Peekskill.

"Our greatest difficulty at the present time," said Dr. Hageny, "lies in the lack of information which teachers have on the facts and figures which would affect them personally." Dr. Hageny cited a case of a man who dies at age forty-five leaving a widow and two young children. In comparing the benefits which would accrue to the survivors under the present teachers retirement system in this hypothetical case with the benefits under a combination of the present system plus social security benefits it appeared that survivors benefits would be very desirable protection for the dependents of teachers.

Dr. Hageny said, "In my opinion it is an empty fear on the part of some teachers that our teachers retirement system will be absorbed into federal social security. I believe that our system will go on just as company systems have gone on in industry after social security came along for industrial workers."

Action at Buffalo

Dr. Burke then proceeded to outline the history of the action of the officers and staff of the New York State Teachers Association following the decisive action on the part of the delegates of the association at their Buffalo convention in November 1956. He said, "This is the most difficult subject I have studied in my twenty years with the association. The delegates voted not to seek inclusion but did not mandate their leaders to oppose inclusion in the enabling act.

And because of this the governor feels that there is sufficient division to warrant giving all teachers an opportunity to voice their individual opinions.

Of the two bills which would allow a referendum on social security, Dr. Burke said that he felt that the Vanlare-Wilson bill was the better because it provided for a referendum by retirement systems rather than local districts and also provided that teachers might reduce their annuity contributions by the amount of the required social security contribution. Both bills provide for possible retroactive coverage. "This left the State Association", explained Dr. Burke, "with three possible courses of action. First, we could take a neutral attitude and remain away from the hearing next week. Secondly, we could strongly, oppose inclusion of teachers in the enabling act and at the same time recommending at the hearing in Albany that provisions regarding retroactive coverage guarantees be included and benefits comparable to social security benefits be given to teachers in their own system if these benefits are not extended to them under social security."

Must Show Interest

In closing, Dr. Burke reminded those present that the fate of their bills in the legislature depended greatly upon letters received by legislators indicating their interest one way or the other.

Another matter discussed at this meeting was a new law passed in 1956 which makes it possible for participating teachers to increase their pension allowance and to contribute a larger percentage of their salaries toward their annuity. Dr. J. S. Scott led this discussion. Erwin Baker and Mrs. Evelyn Allen, co-chairmen of the Retirement Committee were in charge of the meeting.

First two states to join the original 13 in the Union were Vermont (1791) and Kentucky (1792).

Approve C-H Gas Line in Albany, Greene Counties

Approval to exercise gas franchises for the construction of a transmission main in several towns and villages in Albany and Greene counties has been granted Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp. by the state public service commission.

The commission's approval was sought, according to a Central Hudson official, in order that the company may carry out its plan to secure a second source of natural gas through a connection with the Tennessee Gas Transmission Company line near Albany.

In its order, the commission stated "it appears that the construction of the proposed transmission main to connect with the Tennessee System and thus provide a second source of natural gas for the Central Hudson System is highly desirable from the standpoint of both the public and the company."

To obtain gas through the proposed connection, Central Hudson will construct a transmission line through the towns and villages named in their petition. The utility now has gas franchises in these municipalities whose exercise required the approval of the PSC to permit construction of the line.

The areas mentioned in the company's petition, submitted last fall, included the towns of Athens, Coxsackie, New Baltimore, Coeymans and Bethlehem and the villages of Coxsackie and Ravena.

The order also permits the distribution of natural gas in place of butane-air gas in the town and village of Catskill. Public hearings on the utility's petition were held during December.

Flying Bear

Dawson Creek, B. C. (AP)—J. J. Hodgkinson reports receiving an unusual insurance claim from an automobile owner. The man's car was parked off the Alaska Highway near Watson Lake, Y. T., when a bear plunged on to the roof.

REST PLACE: A hospital is not usually considered a place of rest and entertainment today, but that is how the word originated. It is derived from the Latin "hospitalus". In 1048 a group of monks founded a resting place (or hospital) for pilgrims coming to the Holy Land. So many of the travelers were sick that the word took on its present meaning.

Martocci Will Discuss Legislature at Forum

Woodstock, Feb. 28—"News and Views of Albany at Work," a review and interpretation of the current program of the New York State Legislature, will be presented by Francis Martocci, Kingston attorney at the Onteora Forum on Wednesday, March 6, at 7:30 p. m. in Onteora Central School, William H. Deming, director of adult education, has announced. This is the fifth in a series of 10 programs in the Forum, which is open without charge to all area residents and has been planned and is moderated by James W. Orser of the Onteora faculty.

Mr. Martocci will describe how the legislature functions, behind the scenes operations, how bills move, and discuss such items of current interest as taxes, roads, juvenile delinquency. By the use of charts and graphs, this highly important area of democratic operation will be lifted out of the hidden and obscure levels and presented as a living, dynamic social process.

Since 1937 Mr. Martocci has lived in this area, in Phoenicia, Woodstock and Kingston, and now on the Saugerties-Woodstock road. He has practiced law in the area during this time and has specialized in labor litigation. For six years he was Special City Judge in Kingston. He is a past president of the Kingston Lions Club, and a member of the board of trustees of Kingston Library Association. He and his wife have one son, now studying in his third year at Columbia University.

In the last Forum program last night, Harvey Fite, Professor of Sculpture and Chairman of the Arts Department of Bard College, presented color slides of ancient stone carvings in India and Indonesia and interpreted the philosophy, history and art of the East.

The remaining programs in the Forum series are as follows:

March 20—"Science—What Is It and Where Is It Going?" a description of modern science and its meaning for modern man—Harvey W. Culp, chairman, Board of Education, Ossining, New York, lecturer, former dean of Briarcliffe Junior College.

March 27—"Parapsychology—What Does It Mean to You?" History and analysis of two gifted psychics whose unusual "occult" powers were investigated by scientific groups—James W. Orser, member, Onteora Central School faculty, formerly lecturer, Ferrum Junior College, member of the American Society for Psychial Research.

April 3—"Better Living, Country Style," an experiment in rural living for non-farm residents, industrial groups, and city dwellers who own "low income" farm land in Broome county, N. Y.,—how they are learning to use their land for profit and pleasure — James Lawrence, Agricultural Department, Broome County Extension Service Association, Rural Development Program, Assistant County Agricultural Agent.

April 10 — "Who Are We, What Are We, and Where Are We Going?" a discussion on the nature of man, his place in the universe, and his goals—F. L. Kunz, Executive Director, The Foundation for Integrated Education, Editor, Main Currents in Modern Thought, world traveler and lecturer.

Woodstock, Feb. 28 — It has been announced by Karl Cousins, owner of the building on the village green, formerly occupied by the Crafts Cooperative, that the store will be occupied by Frank Lynch to be used as a real estate office. He will take occupancy on March 1.

The service is always a union service and this year will be conducted in the Methodist Church at 2 p. m. The three ministers will all appear on the program. The Rev. Mr. Sands will be the main speaker. He will use the world theme for the day which is "Who will separate us from the love of God?"

The fair date for the Woodstock Methodist Church has been set for Thursday, July 18.

Goes to Chair Tonight

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—The state's highest court Wednesday turned down an eleventh-hour bid by Leonardo Salemi to escape death in the electric chair. Salemi, 44-year-old plasterer, is to be executed at Sing Sing Prison tonight for a 1952 slaying in a Manhattan barroom. The Court of Appeals unanimously denied a motion for reargument of his case. The motion has filed Monday.

Memoriam

In loving memory of my wife and our mother, Mrs. Eva Sullivan, who passed away one year ago February 29, 1956.

It's not the tears at the moment shed
That tells how loved was the soul that fled;
'Tis the silent tears frequently wept
And a sweet remembrance forever kept.

Versions Conflict

Los Angeles, Feb. 28 (AP) — Conflicting versions of a raid that misfired are in the record as a State Senate Committee continues today its search for the sources of sensational stories appearing in scandal magazines. Marilyn Monroe was the objective of the raid, in which investigators invaded the wrong apartment. But most of the testimony in yesterday's opening session concerned this point: Did Frank Sinatra actually take part in the fiasco?

Names Pal as Killer

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 28 (AP) —Ex-convict Arthur Culombe of Hartford has signed eight confessions, police said today, in which he named his pal, Joseph L. Taborsky of Brooklyn, N. Y. as the killer sought for months in connection with fatal holdups throughout Connecticut. State Police Maj. George H. Remer said Colombe had made a separate written confession for each holdup in which he admitted taking part. In the confessions, Culombe said he and Taborsky, each 33, joined forces in each holdup.

World News in Brief

To Remain Neutral

Cairo, Egypt, Feb. 28 (AP) — The four-power Arab summit conference has reaffirmed neutrality in the cold war. It took no public stand on Communist penetration of the Middle East or the Eisenhower Doctrine.

The conference issued a wind-up communique last night. It was signed by King Saud of Saudi Arabia, King Hussein of Jordan, President Shukri Kuwatly of Syria, and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt.

The four Arab leaders reaffirmed their "positive neutrality" in the cold war. They said they were determined to shield Arab countries from its harmful effect.

Outlook Bright

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP) — A joint Senate-House economic committee reported today the outlook for 1957 "is for further increases in employment, production and purchasing power, with no general easing of pressures toward further cost and price increases."

The 14-member committee, headed by Rep. Patman (D-Tex.), was not unanimous in its views, five of its members filed supplemental or minority opinions, but only Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) took major issue with the findings. He cited what he called "weak" points in the economy.

The committee noted that the economic outlook, while currently bright, "may change rapidly."

Sees High Costs

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today President Eisenhowerer's Middle East resolution would open up "an entirely new area of spending" and cost American taxpayers "billions of dollars."

Byrd, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, urged support of a proposal to strip the resolution of a section that would give the President a virtually free hand in spending up to 200 million dollars in available funds on military and economic aid to Middle East nations.

Reds Reshuffled

Vienna, Austria, Feb. 28 (AP)— The Hungarian government of Premier Janos Kadar was reshuffled today, radio Budapest announced.

Ferenc Muennich, defense minister and interior minister, became first deputy prime minister. Lt. Gen. Geza Revesz became minister of defense and Bela Biszku minister of interior.

Gyula Kallai was appointed minister of culture and Dr. Frigyes Doleschal minister of health. Sandor Ronai was relieved of his post as minister of trade, apparently because he also is speaker of parliament.

Porter (D-Ore.) planned to denounce in the House the regime of Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo of the Dominican Republic. Police said pro-Trujillo and anti-Trujillo demonstrators had come to Washington. Porter has been urging a broad investigation into the disappearance of Gerald Murphy of Eugene, Ore., an aviator who disappeared mysteriously in the Dominican Republic last December.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Some oils and aircrafts aroused buying interest as the stock market moved moderately higher early this afternoon.

Pivotal issues rose from fractions to a point for the most part. Some stocks made wider gains but there was also an assortment of losers.

The market was higher at the start and active. But turnover slackened and prices at mid-session were not at their best of the day.

Given Death Sentences

Nicosia, Feb. 28 (AP)—A British court today sentenced three defiant Greek Cypriots to death for possessing arms and ammunition. They were arrested last month in a secret mountain hideout where two Sten guns, six shotguns, two revolvers and ammunition were found. All three told the court they had no complaint against the death sentence.

Compromise

Israeli troops are withdrawn at once from the Gaza Strip and the Sharm El Sheikh area, on the Gulf of Aqaba.

May Be Clarified

Meanwhile, U. S. delegation sources said Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge was continuing his private conversations. They said the situation was expected to be clarified before the afternoon session.

Delegates were bewildered by conflicting statements from Washington and Jerusalem on a reported agreement under which Israeli forces would withdraw behind the 1949 armistice line. An Israeli official in Jerusalem denied any such action had been agreed upon.

Reports from Washington said the United States, France and Israel reached agreement on a plan for Israeli troops to withdraw promptly from the Gaza Strip and Gulf of Aqaba areas. The plan was said to call for their replacement by troops of the UN Emergency Force (UNEF), who would remain in the disputed areas until the Egyptian-Israeli troubles quieted.

New Fight Likely

Omar Loutfi, head of the permanent Egyptian delegation to the United Nations, described the Washington development as news to him and asserted Egypt would still say where UN troops will be stationed on her territory and how long they may stay.

Another new Assembly fight appeared likely if the Cairo government and Egypt's Arab-Asian supporters in the United Nations follow through on Loutfi's reaction. Egypt in the past has firmly insisted that the UN troops should stay on her soil only until all other foreign troops are out—and no longer.

Cleared in Slaying

Rahway, N. J., Feb. 28 (AP)—Richard Freggans, 26-year-old ex-marine, last night was cleared of any connection with the slaying of two young women in a Queens, N. Y., beauty shop 15 months ago. Freggans, of Jersey City, was arrested Monday after a $1.28 holdup and is being held for grand jury action. Police said Freggans was the "Lonely Hearts" bandit who operated in Philadelphia and the New York-New Jersey metropolitan area. Freggans, who carried a .38 revolver at the time of his arrest, told authorities that at the time of the murder he was in the Philadelphia Naval Hospital. The Queens investigators said late last night that Freggans' story had been confirmed by naval intelligence.

Yonkers Policeman Held on Girl's Charge

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—A Yonkers, N. Y., policeman has been arrested for allegedly assaulting a girl photographer, who says she bit and kicked her assailant and took down his auto license number as he fled.

Miss Cecil Hoffman, 21, charged yesterday that Patrolman Thomas Hart, 25, came up behind her as she was returning to her Greenwich Village home shortly after midnight Tuesday, held a pistol against her side and said:

"You're coming with me. Get in the car."

Miss Hoffman said she screamed, kicked, and sank her teeth into Hart's finger. During the scuffle, she said, her assailant hit her on the head with the pistol.

Police said they traced Hart through the auto license number and also learned the patrolman went to St. Joseph's Hospital, Yonkers, to have a finger treated.

Hart, suspended by Yonkers authorities, was booked here on a charge of felonious assault.

The patrolman resides in Yonkers (500 Van Cortland Park Ave.) with his wife and stepdaughter.

Police said Hart told them he had been drinking.

Plan for Play-off If Saugerties Wins

Saugerties, Feb. 28—If Saugerties High School defeats Marlboro in the basketball game Friday evening, it will be in a tie with Rondout Valley Central School, Kerhonkson, in the Ulster County Athletic League.

In that event, the play-off will be held in the Onteora Central School, Boiceville Tuesday beginning at 7:30 p. m. Three-hundred tickets are being reserved for Saugerties rooters, and 300 for Kerhonkson rooters, and a certain number for each of the remaining Ulster County Athletic League schools.

Tickets will go on sale at Beadle's Drug Store, Main street Saturday morning of this week. Saugerties High School pupils will be able to secure their tickets at school Monday morning. The ticket sale will close when the allocated 300 tickets have been distributed.

The reason for the selection of the Onteora court as the site for the contest is that the UCAL rules call for a play-off to be held on a league court. Onteora has the largest seating capacity at the present time of any of the league schools.

Town Notes

Saugerties, Feb. 28 — Next Thursday, the Rev. Alvin F. Messersmith, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of West Camp will represent the Lutheran Church at a meeting of the Rural Church Institute at the University of Cornell at Ithaca.

West Camp, the defending champions in Saugerties Dartball League returned to first place, the first time since October 8. Their schedule calls for clashes with Veteran next Monday night and Trinity on March 11.

The Rev. Richard I. Crossland, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Saugerties will be heard this Sunday.

John J. Helfert of the State road, Malden-on-Hudson, who has been ill at home for the past few days is reported improving.

Mrs. Martha Whitney of Malden is spending the winter with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Coons of Red Hook.

Mrs. Gordon Zeilman of Malden was a recent visitor of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Tinney at Port Ewen.

The Rev. Mr. Messersmith will talk on the Sunday morning devotions over station WSKN at 8:30 a. m., March 10.

Mrs. Curtis Freleigh and friends of Red Hook visited with Mrs. Anna Winchell this past weekend.

Mrs. Marzell Roming of Main street, Saugerties, second vice-president of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce is vacationing in Florida.

Saugerties High Forensic Notes

Novice Turney

Twelve teams from seven Hudson Valley schools will match arguments at Saugerties Saturday in a final warmup before the sectional tourney at New Paltz March 9. The contest is limited solely to novices or those debaters which began their active debating this year. Jeffersonville, Poughkeepsie, Catskill, Columbia, Vincentian, Liberty and Ossining together with the host Sawyers will meet in three rounds on the national debate topic.

SHS Ties for Second

The official publication of the National Forensic League the Rostrum announced in its columns Tuesday that the Saugerties Chapter is now ranked in a tie with Jamestown for second place in standings in New York state. The October rankings had listed Saugerties in third trailing Jamestown by only three points. Poughkeepsie remains as the largest and strongest chapter.

Finish Third at Siena

Sawyer varsity debaters finished in third place among the 12 schools competing in the Siena Invitational Tourney, Saturday. The winning squad was composed of Helen Swart, Janet Nickerson, James Erceg and Joan Cotich. The top performance of the day for the Saugerties teams was the sweep of three straight victories by the squad of Nickerson and Swart. Both squads debated both sides of the national topic on increasing government support of farm commodities to 90 per cent of parity.

A second squad of James Sandner, Anthony Francello, Laurence Risdal and Stephen Borner also fared well winning three of their six debates. John Kerin, former Sawyer debater now enrolled at Siena accompanied the teams and aided in the judging.

Relations Better Between Dulles, Some Democrats

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Sen. Mansfield (D.-Mont.) said today there has been a "marked turn for the better" in relations between Secretary of State Dulles and some Democratic senators who have complained of a lack of bipartisanship in foreign policy.

Mansfield, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, attributed this in part to daily telephone calls Dulles has been making to Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the majority leader, to keep Johnson abreast of developments in the Israel-Egypt crisis.

The Montana senator added in an interview that due to the efforts of Dulles, Johnson and Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, "a better feeling exists between the two branches of government and the prospects for a better sense of responsible cooperation may well be one of the fortunate aspects of the unfortunate happenings of the last few weeks."

Sen. Bush (R.-Conn.) told the Senate yesterday there had been "savage and intemperate attacks" on Dulles. He also spoke of apparent "tactics of delay" in considering the administration's Middle East resolution.

KEEP VIGIL FOR MISSING CHILD—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barker wait with their 12-year-old daughter, Carol Ann, in Bellmawr, N. J., for word of their missing four-year-old child, Mary Jane. Child, missing since Feb. 25, would celebrate her fourth birthday on Feb. 27 and cake on table is for the occasion. (AP Wirephoto)

Police Seek Clues In Barker Case

Bellmawr, N. J., Feb. 28 (AP)—Police said today they were working on several leads but that there were no hard developments in their search for little Mary Jane Barker, believed to have been kidnaped.

The four-year-old child disappeared last Monday morning while she was at play in a yard near her home in this southern New Jersey town of about 5,500.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barker, appealed yesterday for her safe return.

The distraught mother asked newsmen to give the widest circulation to her request that Mary Jane "be left at any church."

Birthday Yesterday

"We promise from the bottom of our hearts to do all that we can to keep you from harm," the mother said, addressing herself to the one she feels sure abducted the youngest of her three children.

The father, a department store radio and TV manager, joined in the prayerful appeal.

The grief of the Barkers was especially acute yesterday. It was Mary Jane's birthday — her fourth. And today is the father's birthday. It was to have been a fine week, with a joint celebration.

Mrs. Barker, weeping, emphasized there is still time to get the child home for a celebration.

"Won't you please give us the only birthday present we want?" She pleaded. "Won't you please bring Putzey back?" Putzey is the family nickname for Mary Jane.

Find No Motive

Police said they could find no motive for kidnapping.

No ransom note has been received; no demand of any kind has been made.

The Philadelphia Inquirer reported that an unidentified priest told of seeing a tall woman bearing the limp body of a small girl within an hour after Mary Jane vanished from her home. The priest was quoted as saying that he saw the woman and her burden a few blocks from the Barker home.

Bellmawr police said they knew nothing of the priest's story.

Clobbered Cabs

Louiseville, Ky. —A visiting motorist almost put the St. Helen's Cab Co. out of business. He ran off the road and into a parking lot. The car struck the rear of a cab, jamming it into another, then veered to the right and hit the side of a third cab. It in turn struck a fourth cab. The accident put four of the company's seven cabs out of commission and sent the visitor to jail on charges of drunken driving, public drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

'Dear Algernon'

By FRANK TRIPP

A somewhat casual salesman acquaintance asked me to write him a "Dear Algernon" letter. To put in "his wife's scrapbook—oh yeah! "Dear Mr." or "Dear Sir" wouldn't do in his catalogue of intimates, which he blames on his wife.

Algernon is not his name and I'll not tell it; neither is his wife's name Ethel. I'll betcha know some Algernons, too.

I never got real easy about addressing other than old and close acquaintances by their first names in letters — not even in the "kiss me" clubs where they promote it.

Frank Tripp

Seems all right orally, though, to call Jim Farley "Jim" or the President "Ike." Maybe somebody calls John Foster Dulles "Foss"—I hope so; he's been called plenty else.

So when I got Algernon's request, I sat down and laughed my head off. I could see Algy displaying his prized letter, all puffed up like a pouter pigeon, and saying, "Here's one I got from Bill Hearst when I was with the Hearst outfit."

THEN I got sore. Likely my "Dear Algy" letter would land way back in the book and never be reached by the captive lookers. What was I sore about? I wasn't going to write any such letter. But I got real cute and did. I wrote:

"Dear Algy:—Pansy dropped in yesterday with bad news. You remember Pansy, the redhead that you took out the night of the company party. Seems she's going to shake you down; wanted to know your address, said she knew we were cronies. I'd do 'most anything for you pal, but keep me out of this mess.

"This Pansy character was only with us two weeks before we got wise to her. Now she's going to milk you for the dress that you ruined over in the Buttonwoods. You blasted idiot! Give my best to Ethel and the kids.

"Your old buddy,
"Frank"

NOW, IF a guy wants to prove intimacy that can't be debated, I thought, I'd accommodated him. Instead, I walked right into a trap. Next day Algy phoned me:

"Hi, Frank; that was a honey; it's Ethel's prize letter. You remember that she was with me at the company party (I hadn't remembered). We got a good laugh out of your joke—just like you—and you're getting a place right next to Adlai—Stevenson, that is. How about lunch some day next week?"

What do you do with a bird like that? Well, I've done it. When Algy reads this, bet he'll put his phony scrapbook in moth balls.

AFFECTION, as often as intimacy, is expressed in the use of first names. We all feel proud when an acquaintanceship grows naturally to that point.

In business it's different. Once it was bad taste to use other than "Dear Sir" or "Gentlemen." It was a concession when "Dear Mr." appeared.

Next came the less formal "Dear John Smith," and finally "Dear John" became permissible among men well known to each other. Some firms still frown upon it. Familiarity can become as embarrassing in business files as in Algernon's scrapbook.

I'm going to see Algy a lot more times. If he's sore about this I'll just say:

"Only another of my jokes, Algy old boy. Remember me to Ethel."

Drill Instructor Will Tell Story Friday

Parris Island, S. C., Feb. 28 (AP)—A 28-year-old drill instructor, who allegedly forced one fledgling marine to eat candy until he almost became ill, is scheduled to go before a Summary Courtmartial tomorrow on charges of maltreating recruits at this big training base.

The case of Sgt. Daniel J. Corey, 28, of (13 Vinal Ave.,) Somverville, Mass., is one of four brought against drill instructors (DI's) here within the past month. Two have been tried and convcted, and two cases are pending.

Corey also is accused of shoving a recruit to the ground. If convicted, his maximum sentence would be 30 days' confinement, reduction in rank and a fine.

Team cooked snap beans with a cream sauce flavored with onion and grated lemon rind for a different-tasting vegetable.

CUTTING UP RAILROAD CARS—Two employes of B. Millens and Sons, scrap iron and steel dealers at 290-300 East Strand are shown cutting up two, 30-ton railroad gondola cars at an area industrial plant. The Millens firm is attempting to forestall the threatened shortage of ferrous scrap in domestic mills.

Millens Firm Has Busy Program in Demand of Scrap

An announcement recently about a threatened shortage of high grade ferrous scrap brought to light a local concern's concentrated drive for the item so essential in making steel.

The Associated Press reported last week that the U. S. Department of Commerce had temporarily halted issuance of export licenses for scrap iron because of domestic demand.

Business 69 Years Old

"We have several scrapping and dismantling projects underway," said a spokesman for B. Millens & Sons, 290-300 East Strand, scrap iron and metal firm stemming from a humble beginning 69 years ago.

"In these days we are trying constantly to uncover every potential source of scrap material to channel back to steel production," one of the partners said.

Run by Brothers

Three brothers have been operating the East Strand yard since 1925 — Max, Mason and Samuel Millens. The partnership is a continuation of the business started in 1888 by their father, the late Barney Millens.

A grandson, Marvin, son of Max Millens, has been associated with the firm in a purchasing and sales capacity since 1952.

Presently the cutting crews of the Millens firm are dismantling two 30-ton railroad gondola cars, a 60-ton electric shovel, and four six-ton electric transformers at area industrial plants.

The Millens firm has handled some big jobs in the past. It scrapped the Otis Incline Railroad at Kaaterskill, and five bridges and the rails from the Catskill-Cairo Railroad.

It handled scrap from the Shandaken tunnel, Lackawack dam and bought the old cast iron pipe when the City of Kingston Water Department replaced its line between Zena and Sawkill.

Use Modern Methods

Scrap for steel mills was loaded into railroad cars by hand before 1927. That year a giant crane and electric magnet were added to the equipment, which can pick up 10 tons at a time.

Two cranes mounted on caterpillars also operate in the scrap yard now, and a truck crane does outside lifting. Five motor trucks pick up and deliver material.

Other facilities at the yard are a lift truck for handling baled materials, stationary and portable cutting shears to cut steel into mill size, and a baler for packing paper stock, rags and metals.

Installed First Baler

The firm was first in the city to install a hydraulic tin baler that handles half an automobile body at once. It has been in operation since 1953 crushing up to 25 tons of tin scrap a day into bundles of 350 and 400 pounds.

The Millens brothers do business with the building trades of the area from a warehouse handling new steel at 100-110 East Strand, where shipments are received direct from the mills.

Freeman Ads Help

Weekly advertisements in The Freeman, the firm says, have helped its expansion.

B. Millens & Sons have furnished steel sections for many bridges in the area, and delivered two of the main beams for the new Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge main administration building.

Materials from the business have gone into construction of such buildings as Schoentag's Hotel, Casablanca Restaurant, Rheingold building, Colonial Cabinet building, Otto's store, French Dye Works, Dekoff building and Arace Appliance store.

Sentence Imposed In Larceny Case

Booker T. Johnson. 37, who was charged with robbing a fellow workman at Milton on January 6, last, of $7, was sentenced to a term of 3 to 6 years at hard labor in Clinton State Prison on a plea in County Court to a second degree grand larceny charge. He was sentenced as a second offender, after admitting he had been convicted in 1949 at Oldham county, Kentucky of robbery.

Johnson took $7 from Stanley Krauskaskas, a tree pruner on the Andola farm at Milton, at gunpoint and was later arrested in Poughkeepsie. He was indicted for robbery, first degree, assault and violation of Section 1296 of the penal law. Matthew Weishaupt, counsel, asked the court to show leniency. The first and third count of the indictment was dismissed.

James E. Martin, Ellenville, entered a plea of guilty to unlawful entry and when brought before the court for sentence was faced with a charge of violation of probation.

On November 30, 1955, Martin was sentenced to a term of from 1½ to 3 years in Clinton State Prison and execution of sentence was suspended and he was placed on probation for a two-year period.

Following his plea of guilty to unlawful entry, Chief Probation Officer Edmund U. Burhans filed an information charging probation violation. Martin admitted the charge and Judge Louis G. Bruhn reimposed the 1½ to 3 year prison sentence. Imposition of sentence on the unlawful entry plea was suspended after the former prison sentence had been invoked. John Gotelli appeared for Martin by assignment.

William Dunlop, 33, Walden, entered a plea of guilty to grand larceny, first degree, and sentence will be imposed later. Joseph Hill appeared for Dunlop.

Rochester Town Highway Workers Ask Salary Hike

During the regular meeting of the town board of the town of Rochester Town Superintendent of Highways Burton G. Barringer informed the board members that highway employes had requested a raise in salary. He was instructed to discuss the request with them and report back to the town board.

Time to purchase dog licenses was extended to March 13 by the board.

Supervisor Burton H. Marshall reported a balance of $3,294.31 in the general fund as of January 31 and in the highway fund $8,854.30.

All members of the board were present at the meeting when a discussion on the mileage of the town of Rochester roads came up. Since state aid is received according to the mileage, Superintendent Burton G. Barringer was instructed to make a re-check of mileage and report back to the board.

A motion was made by Councilman Morris Sims, seconded by Abram D. Smith, justice, that the town of Rochester accept building and school property of School District No. 6 of the town from the taxpayers of the district. The acceptance was made on legal advice and assurance of Thomas Plunket, attorney for the district.

A special meeting of the town board was held January 29, to discuss the snow removal and sanding program. It was decided that snow removal and sanding take place whenever road conditions warrant it, regardless of the amount of snowfall.

The next regular meeting will be held Wednesday, March 13.

GOP Chances

Hutcheson could win even though a majority of the votes were cast for Democrats, but split among the large Democratic field. A runoff would make certain that if Hutcheson did lead in the special election, he then would face the combined strength of the Democrats mustered behind the Democratic candidate polling the next highest vote. That would lessen Hutcheson's chances considerably in traditionally Democratic Texas.

Some opponents to the bill in the completely Democratic Texas Legislature have said they were against the principle of changing election laws at all. Other opposition was based on charges that the bill was not really aimed at Hutcheson, but was designed to keep liberal Democrat Ralph Yarborough candidate from winning.

A victory by Hutcheson could mean reorganization of the U. S. Senate under Republican control. It would give the GOP 48 seats to 48 for the Democrats and Vice President Nixon could cast the tie-breaking vote.

Democrat William Blakley is serving as interim senator pending the election. He was appointed by former Gov. Allan Shivers to fill Price Daniel's seat when Daniel resigned to become governor.

State Sen. Grady Hazlewood, sponsor of the Pool bill in the Senate made his appeal for it on the possibility of Republican reorganization.

"If a Republican is elected and changes the leadership of the Senate, you possibly may change the whole economy of Texas because the oil depletion allowance is hanging in the balance," Hazlewood told fellow senators.

PRINCIPALS AT REALTORS' DINNER—The annual dinner of the Ulster County Real Estate Board was held Wednesday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Seated (l-r) Benson Krom, past president; Miss Marguerite Quick, secretary and Richard M. Groves, of Syracuse, president of the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards who was guest speaker; standing, Arthur J. Burns, treasurer of the local board, and Edward C. O'Connor, vice president. (Freeman photo)

Realtors Are Told

for a thousand interrelated needs which cost too much money, accomplishes all too little and which fails to meet the challenges of our times" be terminated.

Mr. Groves said there would be an estimated 178 million people in 1960 and an estimated 220 million in 1975. "We've been through a skirmish but the big battle is ahead. . ."

Coordination Problem

He pointed out that the biggest problem which "besets us is the one bringing about coordination. This great wealth of ability and vision which we enjoy here in our land can certainly solve any problems which our progress necessitates—but first, we've got to get together."

He listed a number of examples of confused decision making, pointing out that "we have the greatest history and specimens of spot zoning which man could devise—zoning by political subdivision, not by plan! Zoning by emotion! Not zoning by plan!"

He described the "State's Commissioner of Housing begging for voter approval of a $750 million program which he says will reduce slums and better our world. This is better known to you as the Middle Income Housing Bill defeated in the general election last November.

"On the other hand his boss, the governor, is vetoing a bill which would make possible the greatest slum-clearance plan in the state's history without a single dollar's cost to any taxpayer. This is known as the Neighborhood Conservation Bill passed by both Houses of the Legislature with only three dissenting votes. Not only no plan here but no logic either!"

New Orderly Progress

The value of the "commodity we deal in" depends upon orderly progress and the visionary approach to meet the challenges of civilization's movement, he told the realtors. "Not only does our livelihood rest on it but the welfare of the entire American economy rests on it. Our agriculture, our industrial production, our investments—all hinge to real estate and to the best uses of the best facilities for the best purposes for all the people!

"That is why an active, vigilant, thoughtful interest in tomorrow is vital to our profession as well as being essential to the whole economy and way of life.

"Realtors are experts in land-use and mostly we're practical people. We have to be expert in anticipating trends and progress.

"But we have even greater responsibility! We must exercise our knowledge and talents for an even greater good! We must be more active in planning from the bottom up and from the top down. We must be greater participants in these essential preparations for tomorrow. We must donate and dedicate our know-how and our talents to more realistic planning. We must be aggressive and logical. We must be in the forefront of action to see that this currently chaotic, unplanned, ill-defined, fragmented preparation for tomorrow is brought into an orderly, sensible, feasible, long-range plan."

Mr. Groves also used slides in illustrating his points.

Benson Krom, immediate past president of the board, presided, spoke briefly of his stewardship during the past year and introduced the speaker.

YOUTH LEADER—Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief Scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, has been appointed by President Eisenhower to be chairman of the Youth Committee for the President's People to People program. The Youth Committee consists of adult leadership from 25 youth organizations with a combined membership of millions of young people. It is one of 41 groups seeking to promote people-to-people contacts throughout the world to develop fellowship.

Milk Strike . . .

movement on the part of producers to strike."

Violence Not Answer

The board of directors of the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative said that violence and bloodshed are not the answer to the farmer's problem—how to get a higher price for their milk.

Eastern, claiming to have 11,000 members, describes itself as the largest dairy bargaining cooperative in the northeast.

In New Jersey yesterday, some 200 extra state troopers patrolled highways in four counties where more than 300 pickets were active.

Other Developments

In other developments yesterday:

A Superior Court order was issued in Newark, N. J., barring strikers from hampering delivery of milk to creameries or destroying property or picketing.

The Tri-State Guild called off a projected march on the State House in Trenton, N. J., set for today.

At Branchville, N. J., a Guild spokesman said the projected march "would be just a futile gesture," adding that "the men are tired . . . and decided to conserve their energy."

Harold E. Le Mon, the Guild's business manager, said duplicate telegrams have been sent to Secretary of Agriculture Benson; New York Gov. Averell Harriman; Charles J. Blanford, federal administrator for the New York milk marketing area; New York Agriculture Commissioner Carey; and Floyd R. Hoffman, chairman of the New Jersey office of the milk industry.

Defraud Attempt Denied in Area Housing Project

Selection of a jury was commenced Wednesday in County Court for trial of a first degree grand larceny charge against Leonard A. Harrison, formerly of Monticello, who allegedly received money from Ellenville area residents under false pretenses.

It is charged in an indictment returned by the grand jury, that Harrison took deposits from residents for construction of homes and that at the time the deal was made he said the project was FHA approved.

The charge is made that the project Len Crest Manor Development never was approved by the FHA and that the money received from prospective home owners was received under false pretenses.

Jacob Aks appears for Harrison, who denies there was any intent to defraud.

It is charged Harrison received $2,000 from Manuel Finger of 36 Circle avenue, Ellenville, as a deposit and that the representations made at the time were false. The payment was to have been a down payment on a house and lot. At the time Finger, alleges he had been told by Harrison that the site was to have 61 homes and that a plot plan had borne a FHA stamp on a corner of the plan. Finger alleges he expected the house to be paid for over a 30-year period under FHA approval.

Finger alleged, when the matter came before a justices court in Ellenville, that the house had been promised for occupancy in October, 1955.

Unable to contact Mr. Harrison at Monticello, where he had been staying, Finger wrote the FHA. A complaint followed to the district attorney's office and the indictment was later returned.

Aks, in examining prospective jurors, denied any intent to defraud and said no criminal intent had been displayed and that Harrison may have committed a civil breach of his contract but had committed no criminal act.

At the hearing last March in justice's court in Ellenville, Aks said Harrison was the victim of circumstances when the financial backing he had expected failed to materialize.

It is charged there were other payments made, one for $1,200, in addition to the $2,000 paid by Finger.

New Penalty

Concord, N. H., Feb. 28 (AP)—Municipal Court Judge A. J. Chretien says he is trying out a new program involving habitual drunks. He said yesterday he would give such defendants a choice of a stiff fine or attending 10 meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous. The first person to come before the judge under that program yesterday decided to attend 10 meetings rather than pay a $25 fine.

Bus Route Change

were filed by Eagle Bus Line, Inc., Adirondack Transit Lines, Inc., and Arrow Bus Line, Inc. The latter also asks authorization to discontinue use of sections of Ferry street, East Strand, lower Broadway, Abeel street and Hasbrouck avenue.

The hearing will be on a routine, but legally necessary phase of travel changes already designated and in use in conjunction with the one-way street system. The Arrow Line's separate application listing the downtown streets merely asks to make official the discontinuance of a former downtown bus run.

Driver Fined $20

Joseph Bauer, 18, of Route 4, Box 383, Kingston, was arrested at 9:30 p. m., yesterday on St. James street by officers Floyd Krom and William Snyder on a charge of speeding. He was fined $20 by City Judge Raymond J. Mino today.

At Age Two, He's 'Seeing Eye' for Parents—

"And a little child shall lead them . . ." This familiar quotation is a reality in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hathaway in Stow, Ohio. The child is only two years old. He is their son, Clarence. Both parents are totally deaf. Furthermore his dad is blind and his mother sees only dimly. But already, rising to what he seems to feel is his responsibility, little Clarence is helping them overcome their handicaps. His understanding shows in the way he clasps their hands to guide them. He hands them things. When it it is time for mail, he summons his dad with a trouser-leg tug and shepherds him to the mailbox. He guides them on shopping trips, taking them in and out of stores and onto buses. So far, Clarence is sober-faced and silent though his parents make a point of talking to him. Between themselves they use finger messages on the palms of their hands. He's expected to begin talking when he starts to nursery school.

"Little Eagle Eye," as his parents call two-year-old Clarence Hathaway, leads his blind father, Harold, to the mailbox.

A bit gooey, but a gesture of love. Clarence digs his finger into birthday cake icing and passes a gob to his mother.

The albatross ranks as the most powerful sea bird on the wing.

Dallas, Feb. 28 (AP) — Three snuff-users were arrested here for illegal dipping. Detectives J. R. Dawson and W. M. Starks said the trio ordered snuff in three grocery stores, then dipped a total of $225 cash out of the registers while cashiers turned to fill their orders.

Nixon Takes Off Today for 8-Day Gold Coast Tour

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Vice President Nixon leaves today (2 p. m. EST) on a good will visit to eight African countries and Italy. He goes as President Eisenhower's representative.

Nixon's 17,000 mile, 22-day flying tour is aimed at demonstrating the American government's increasing interest in Africa as a western bulwark in the East-West struggle.

Nixon will serve as special White House envoy in visits to Morocco, the Gold Coast, Liberia, Uganda, Ethiopia, Sudan, Libya, Tunisia and Italy.

Five Others Going

Accompanied by Mrs. Nixon and a four-member official delegation, his main stop will be at the Gold Coast to attend March 6 ceremonies converting this British colony into the independent nation of Ghana. The Nixon party wil spend four days in this all-Negro nation on Africa's west coast.

Nixon plans shorter visits in each of the other nations on his itinerary for talks with top government leaders. These talks will be directed mainly at discovering any possible irritants in their relations with the United States.

Nixon is reported anxious to make person-to-person contacts with the people in the areas he visits. This diplomacy by personal contact has marked Nixon's previous good will visits on behalf of Eisenhower to Asia, Central America and South America.

Scores 'Gaps'

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—The chairman of a legislative committee on health insurance says some coverage has "gaps" when it is needed most. Republican Senator George R. Metcalf of Auburn commented yesterday at a hearing on legislative proposals to limit grounds on which insurance companies could change or terminate health policies. Insurance company representatives said the bills would make coverage more expensive. Representatives of health-plan organizations and welfare agencies said enactment would lessen demands on tax-supported agencies.

Anonymous Donor

Spokane, Wash. (AP)—The pastor of the Westminster Congregational Church received a pleasant surprise from a $900 contribution in the Sunday collection plate. Nine $100 bills were in an envelope marked "for the building fund." There was no clue to the donor.

FOUND BODY—Fred Benonis, 26-year-old LaSalle College student, is shown in Philadelphia police station where he told of the circumstances in the finding of the body of a small boy in a cardboard carton. Police are checking to determine if the body might be that of Steven Craig Damman, an airman's son who was kidnaped in Long Island, N. Y., in 1955. (AP Wirephoto)

Ave for Expenditure

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—Gov. Harriman says an expenditure of 1½ million to crack down on tax evaders could bring in 16½ million in new revenue. He is asking Republican leaders to restore to his budget the 1½ million he requested for creation of 500 new tax department jobs. The Republicans have cut 30 million dollars from the record Harriman budget of $1,617,400,000 for the fiscal year beginning April 1. The proposal for the new tax job was included in the cut.

HOW MUCH SHALL I SAY?

In a classified ad say as much as is necessary to completely describe what you are offering of goods or services, little more. Be brief, concise, complete. Tell all you would like to know if you were the prospect.

Facts are what count in a classified ad. Superlatives are to be avoided. Readers of classified pages are looking for something. If you have it and your copy adequately describes it, leaves no question in prospect's mind, you will get action . . . a sale if terms are right.

A buyer looking for something in classified pages will read most of the ads to find it. The judicious use of display type, a little white space at top and bottom, command attention, adding to the pulling power.

Say what is essential in your ad; use display space where competitive advertising dictates the need.

Won't Talk Yet

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Textile Workers Union of America announced today its refusal to discuss before March 15 a call by the Bates Manufacturing Co. for a 10 per cent cut in the $1.40-an-hour basic wages of its cotton-rayon workers. When negotiations begin, the union said, it will seek to demonstrate the "justice and necessity" of contract improvements, rather than reductions.

Transfer Bid Lifts to Slam

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

A quick look at the North and South hands shows that six spades is a lead pipe cinch. The second heart is ruffed in dummy and after drawing trumps declarer ruffs out one club to clear that suit and spreads his hand.

It should be easy to bid in spite of the fact that the opening no-trump was a minimum 16 pointer and that responder held only 10 high card points. Yet, in a recent duplicate game only the pairs using the Jacoby transfer bid got there. The others all stopped at game.

North's two-heart response was the transfer bid and South rebid to two spades as demanded. North's bid of three clubs was normal and showed the five-card club suit.

At this point it was not difficult for South to visualize a possible slam. He held only 16 points but he had the right cards to produce a slam if North who had already shown a spade and club two-suit hand held only one heart. Instead of merely bidding four spades South temporized with a bid of three diamonds.

North jumped to four spades. He had enough stuff to warrant a game contract and three no-trump was obviously the wrong game to be in.

South's five-spade bid was aggressive, but clearly warranted by his cards. He had tremendous spade support.

North's six-spade bid was also aggressive. However, South's bidding had shown that he held little or nothing in the heart suit. Hence there was going to be no duplication or waste in hearts and at worst the slam should depend on a finesse or break in trumps.

He Finds Treasure in Arizona Desert

By BEULAH STOWE

There is a 61-year-old man alone in the desert in southern Arizona, who has found his retirement dream amid the sand and sagebrush. He has found treasure in those lonely sands, treasure free for the seeking.

His name is Allen McDonald, and he runs a small roadside stand along a main highway, selling stones, gems, petrified wood and hand-made jewelry to tourists.

"The most fun is finding the stones," Mr. McDonald says. "Some days I close the shop and take off through the desert on horseback. I collect turquoise, quartz and just plain 'rocks.' Even scraps of glass from an old whisky bottle tossed into the sand are pretty when they turn purple from the rays of the sun.

"I bring back the gems and the stones and the glass and polish them. Some I mount in rings, set in bracelets or earrings, key chains and western ties. Some I display so that buyers can choose their own combinations. I keep jewelry fittings on hand to make them up as the customer wants them.

"I've lived everywhere in the United States," say Mr. McDonald. "This is my life. I have the adventure of the trips in the desert; the daily company of visitors from all over the country and the best climate in the world."

Mr. McDonald quit his job in North Carolina two years ago, when he decided he was "good and tired" of working for a living. His chosen life has the advantages of giving him both adventure and income with a very low overhead: a frame-built, one-story, 12-foot-square store building, an old car, a polishing wheel, and fittings for his jewelry comprised his original outlay.

He also spends imagination (though he says this doesn't cost anything). He continues to learn, to classify, and to write about his findings. And some day he fully expects to satisfy that dream of every small boy and every erudite archeologist—he'll find the remains of an ancient city filled with buried treasure.

Q—"I want to know how to avoid leaving all my money to the government in inheritance taxes. I have two children and some nieces and nephews. I've paid taxes all my life; why should I pay them after I'm dead, too?"—A. E. N.

A—You can argue the "why" with Uncle Sam, but it won't do much good.. Maybe you should be like one wealthy woman I know, who says she never objects to paying taxes—she is getting her money's worth in services, security and citizenship. Another well-to-do woman makes it a policy to give away at least $100 a month, sometimes to relatives, sometimes to casual acquaintances. It is her greatest delight to know of some special need of Cousin Malcolm's and send him a check. Gifts are deductible from income tax, you know, with a limit on how much can be given to one person. Consult your lawyer, spend today, give today, help your children while you're still on this earth, and start thinking about your soul instead of your money. Which goes with you?

Tallamy Declares N.A. Area Leads Way on Highways

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 28 (AP)—Federal Highway Administrator Bertram D. Tallamy says the north Atlantic region is ahead of the rest of the nation in the new federal highway program.

He addressed the 33rd annual meeting yesterday of the Assn. of Highways Officials of the North Atlantic States.

Represented in the group are Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Tallamy said contracts advertised and funds obligated by all states during the first seven months of the program totaled more than $11,300,000,000. Of that amount, he said, the North Atlantic area committed 262 million dollars. The region has been allocated 23 per cent of the total federal funds available in the fiscal year ending this June 30.

The search for a Page One Queen to reign at the annual ball and entertainment of Kingston Newspaper Guild Saturday, May 4, will begin today, it was announced by the Page One Queen Committee.

Competition is open to any single or married young lady who is a permanent resident of Ulster county and has reached her 16th birthday but has not reached her 25th birthday when her entry is received.

Names, addresses and birth dates of entrants may be sent on a post card to the Page One Queen Committee P. O. Box 153, Kingston. Organizations are invited to enter one or more candidates. Entrants must provide their own evening dress and attire.

Finalists will be chosen at a reception Saturday, April 20. A panel of six judges from different sections of the county will chose the five finalists on the basis of personality, poise, character, face and figure.

One of the five will be crowned at the ball and will receive the Guild's silver loving cup and many other prizes donated from area businessmen. Each of the finalists will receive a memento of her participation.

This is the first time the Guild, an organization composed of the working press, advertising and business personnel, has opened the competition to the county. Last year's queen, Miss Doris Parslow was chosen from among the Guild's membership.

The Queen and four finalists will be featured in the more than 40 page program published by the Guild in conjunction with the annual affair.

Hospital Auxiliary Plans to Purchase New Sales Cart Here

At the meeting of the Kingston Hospital Auxiliary this week, it was announced that the Board of Trustees was so interested in the service rendered by the sales cart that they authorized the purchase of a larger and better designed cart. The exact size and style will be chosen by sales cart committee members.

Plans were formulated for a card party to be held in May during, and in conjunction with, the celebration of National Hospital week.

Mrs. Frederic Holcomb Sr., treasurer of the annual ball committee, gave a financial report on the dance which was liberally supported by friends of the hospital. It was also noted that tickets returns still outstanding may be sent to Mrs. Frederic Holcomb Sr. at 188 Fair street.

Five new members were presented at the meeting: the Mmes. William Bieber, Porter Stone, Elbert Loughran, Robert Numrich and Miss Mabel Robinson, RN.

Following the business meeting, Dr. William Askue, local pediatrician gave an excellent and most informative talk on Child Development and some of the problems confronting average parents.

INFORMING FRIENDS OF ESTRANGEMENT

A reader asks: "Will you please help me with a problem that I don't quite know how to handle? After fifteen years of marriage, my husband and I have decided to separate. This will come as a shock to our friends and acquaintances as my husband and I have both tried to conceal our estrangement from them. Our close friends will know almost at once but I do not quite know how to let more casual friends know. For instance, when I happen to meet them and in parting they ask to be remembered to John what should I say? This is rather an embarrassing position to be in and I will be most grateful for your help."

The more quickly you establish the truth of your separation, the simpler it will be to meet it. When friends ask to be remembered to John say, "I'm sorry to have to tell you that John and I have separated."

A Woman Paying a Restaurant Check

Dear Mrs. Post: I am a woman executive in a large company, and very often it is necessary for me to take men customers to lunch. The men always seem embarrassed to have me pay the check and often try to pick it up themselves. This creates a very awkward situation. Can you offer a solution to this problem?

Answer: You say to your men guests, "No, let me pay the check because you are the guests of my company and they want me to put it on my expense account."

Welcoming Her to the Family

Dear Mrs. Post: What acknowledgment is one expected to make of a relative's engagement? The girl is a stranger to us, but her engagement to my cousin has been announced and I wondered if there is anything we should do.

Answer: Definitely you must either write or telephone her at once to welcome her into your family and ask when it will be convenient for you to go to see her. Of course, if you are of an older generation you would ask your cousin to bring his fiancee to a meal at your house—or at least to see you.

When and how to announce the engagement are described in Mrs. Post's leaflet E-1, "Announcing the Engagement." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Church Leader Labels Bingo Entering Wedge for Gamblers

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—A Protestant church leader, announced plans for a fight against legalization of bingo in New York state, says it would be an entertaining wedge for professional gamblers.

The statement was made yesterday by the Rev. Dr. Paul W. Rishell, executive secretary of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Protestant Council of the City of New York. He is a member of the executive committee formed by the State Council of Churches to fight legalization of bingo.

To Fight Amendment

Dr. Rishell said major Protestant organizations will fight a proposed Constitutional amendment to legalize bingo which will be voted on in the election next fall.

The proposed amendment would allow local governments to authorize bingo games, under certain conditions, for the benefit of religious, charitable and other nonprofit organizations.

Dr. Rishell said:

"Our main objection to this particular piece of legislation is that it makes legal for a preferred group like churches a practice that remains illegal for other groups.

"If it's bad for others, then playing it in a church or civil hall does not remove that evil. It is preferential legislation. It's like having a law against stealing, then saying it's all right to steal for your church or grange."

Committees Formed

Dr. Rishell said the State Council of Churches has organized committees on a county-by-county basis to develop "informed opposition" to bingo legalization.

He cited other objections which he said grew out of his research, including a study in New Jersey where bingo is allowed for certain nonprofit groups and regulated by state law.

France Introduces Dirt Resistant Gowns

Paris, Feb. 28 (AP)—Two mannequins stood at a bar last night and threw champagne over each other's latest Paris gowns.

While cameramen exploded flashbulbs, someone stepped up to wipe them off with a handkerchief—and their dresses looked as good as new.

It was the introduction of a new process, developed in America by Dow Corning Corp., but applied to clothing for the first time by the French Saint Gobain Co.

A silicone treatment, here called "Siss," makes fabrics resistant to dirt, food and liquid stains. It has been used in America for car and jet plane parts, bread molds, paints and medical blood coagulants. But it took the French to apply it to silks and satins for fashionable women.

Many of the latest high fashion creations in the spring shows just completed were "Siss-ed" A demonstration model had five successive oups of coffee dashed over it without leaving a trace. Even Dior brought out some "Siss-ed" dresses. The chemical used comes from ordinary sand and clay.

Awarded Citation By The Christophers

New York, Feb. 28 (AP) — George E. Sokolsky, author of the column, "These Days," which appears in The Freeman, was awarded a bronze medallion and citation by The Christophers this week.

The award was for an article published last November 22nd entitled "Why We Give Thanks," and was made by Father James Keller, M.M., founder of The Christophers.

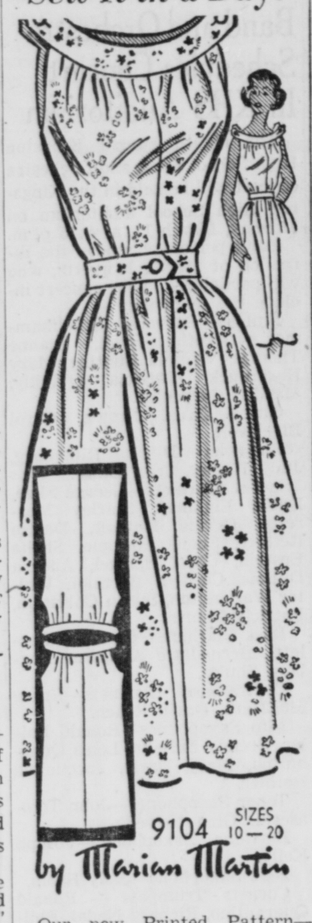

The awards are presented semi-annually to selected persons for using their "God given talents in a constructive manner."

Would Eliminate Order

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 28 (AP)—Gov. Robert B. Meyner's milk committee yesterday urged U. S. Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson to eliminate a single milk marketing order for New York and New Jersey from consideration at a March 5 hearing. The committee, headed by Clinton dairyman Lloyd Wescott, reaffirmed its support for a separate order for New Jersey. The hearings ordered by Benson more than a year ago, originally were called to consider only a separate order for New Jersey. Last week Benson announced that the resumed hearing would include the comprehensive order favored by New York dairymen.

After you have used clasified ads, you will want to shout from the highest steeple of their selling success.

Sullivan, Met Terminate Video Show Contract

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Ed Sullivan television show and the Metropolitan Opera have decided that each has its place—and that it's not together.

They have agreed to terminate a month early a contract under which Met stars appeared on the TV program.

Sullivan, on one hand, said his show's rating dropped when he presented opera singers.

And Rudolph Bing, the Met's general manager, was unhappy about ventriloquists and other variety acts sharing the program with his stars.

The fourth and final appearance of Met stars on the Sullivan show will come March 10 when Renata Tebaldi and Richard Tucker will sing a duet.

Democrats to Gain 3-2 Majority in State PSC

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—Democrats will have a 3-2 majority on the State Public Service Commission after the resignation tomorrow of Republican Glen R. Bedenkapp.

The resignation, announced last night, will give Gov. Harriman an opportunity to appoint a fourth Democrat.

Bedenkapp, 67, was Republican state chairman from 1945 to 1949 and was appointed to the commision in the latter year by former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. The commissioner has lived in Albany and maintained a voting residence in Lewiston, Niagara county.

A full term on the PSC is 10 years. Members are paid $18,500 a year and $25 a day in lieu of travel expenses.

The chairman, now Republican Benjamin Feinberg of Plattsburgh, receives $19,500 a year. He was appointed chairman by Dewey and his term ends in 1959. The Democratic majority cannot replace him as chairman.

Dallas, Feb. 28 (AP) — Mrs. Henry (Bama) Marshall, a former east Texas farm woman who became a pie cook for three states, died yesterday. Mrs. Marshall, with her husband, formed the Bama Pie Co. here in 1926. She hadn't baked a pie in about 15 years, but she had been active in management of the multi-million dollar firm until her health forced her into retirement. Mrs. Marshall reportedly learned how to make pies from a family recipe and perfected her pastry skills cooking for her husband and seven children on their east Texas farm.

Felled by TV Pole

Dallas, Feb. 27 (AP)—A TV fan narrowly escaped death when a portable video antennae fell into the bathtub with him last night. Gilbert Noble, 39, was found unconscious from electric shock. His wife, who weighs only 120 pounds, tugged her 180-pound husband from the tub where he lay unconscious. She said she happened to look into the bathroom "on a hunch." Investigators said his wife's pulling probably started Noble's breathing again.

Hollywood, Feb. 28 (AP)—Actor Jack Webb, 36, has disclosed that he and his wife, Dorothy Towne, 26, have separated for the third time. They were married in Chicago Jan. 11, 1955. "We haven't gotten as far as divorce talk yet or even to negotiations on a property settlement." Webb said yesterday. His wife notified him from Mexico, he added, that she has decided on a separation. Webb, best known as television's Sgt. Dog Warden Ends Duties Today; SPCA Takes Over

Henry J. Van Steenburgh, of 136 Second avenue, who has been the city's dog warden for approximately four years, spent his last day on the job today and his duties were due to be taken over tomorrow by the County SPCA.

Mr. Van Steenburg indicated this morning that he has no definite plans for employment elsewhere at this time.

SPCA Agent Kenneth Gaffney, of 47 Manor Place, is due to be in charge of local dog warden duties starting tomorrow. He may be reached at the SPCA shelter, telephone 5377, or at his home, telephone 7516.

The Common Council voted 12-1 Feb. 5 to abolish the dog warden post, which operated under a budget of $3,050, of which $2,800 was for the warden's salary. SPCA operation of the dog warden's duties, it is estimated will cost the city $2,400.

Alderman Frank Zakseski (D) fourth ward, the only councilman to oppose the change, said he failed to grasp the value of taking a job away from a local taxpayer to save $600. The city, he noted, owned equipment for the work, and he felt that the saving involved was not worth the change.

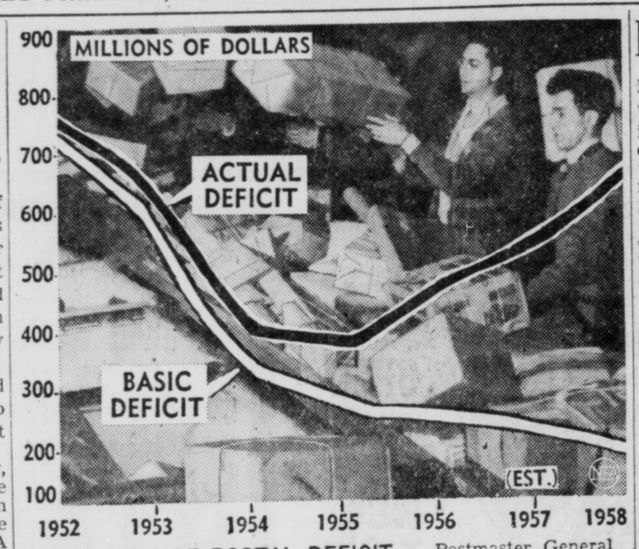

Mt. Marion . . .

The district with an assessed valuation of $907,784 currently raises $2,000 for fire fighting purposes. The district in two townships has an assessed valuation in the town of Saugerties of $602,465 and in town of Ulster $305.319.

Henry Snyder, chairman of the board of fire commissioners said that the commissioners have been looking at new equipment purchased by nearby fire companies and have a good idea what they want for the district.

Other commissioners are George Becker, Thomas Kolb, David Scheffel and Carl Denlinger.

THE HOW OF POSTAL DEFICIT — Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield issued the graph above in connection with his recent warning that the nation's postal deficit will soon approximate a billion dollars a year unless postal rates, virtually unchanged since 1932, are raised to realistic levels. The basic deficit was 720 million dollars in 1952, last full fiscal year of the Truman administration. If that still held, new expenses would have raised the fiscal 1958 deficit to more than a billion dollars. But the inherited basic 720-million-dollar deficit has been whittled down to 178 millions for fiscal 1958, starting July 1. To this basic deficit must be added the new expenses, totaling 473 millions. This brings the actual debt, according to the 1958 budget, to 651 millions.

Hurley Zoning

had not been given regarding the informational hearing, claiming that most residents of the community were unaware that the meeting were being held. In reply, Mr. Briggs read publicity notices which had appeared in the press. Mrs. Davis pointed out, however, that the notices were apparently insufficient and urged wider publicity in the future.

Henry Paul, Jr., asked if the town board would submit the ordinance to a vote of the people and what notice would be given the community prior to the hearing.

Mr. Tucker explained that he had not reviewed the requirements in regard to a referendum but that the town board was required to give 10 days notice in advance of the hearing.

Two Named for Board

Jay Molyneaux recommended Al Nussbaum and Jerome Kemmerer for appointment as members of the town planning board and the board took the names under advisement.

Ira Saxe, West Hurley Fire Commissioner, reported to the town board that the many meetings of the planning board, the zoning commission, town board and various elections were creating a problem in maintenance costs of buildings and facilities. He asked the town board to give some consideration to the problem.

Date Is Extended On Applications For Welfare Exam

Date for filing applications for Civil Service examinations for case workers in public welfare departments has been extended from February 15 to March 5, it was announced today by Thomas Bohan, executive secretary of the Ulster County Civil Service Commission.

The examination will be held on Saturday, March 16.

Starting salary is $3,240 with increments of $120 per annum to $3,840. A total of 150 positions are open throughout the state. There are several vacancies in Ulster county.

Candidates must be high school graduates or possess a high school equivalency diploma. They must also have graduated from a recognized college, university or normal school or have four years of satisfactory full-time paid experience in social work with a public or private social agency adhering to acceptable standards or in supervised teaching in an accredited school, or have a satisfactory equivalent combination of the foregoing training and experience.

Israel Denies

Canal, they recalled that the 1888 treaty contemplated a definite system to guarantee, at all times and to all powers, the free use of the canal.

"In this connection, they reaffirmed their adherence to the six requirements unanimously adopted by the United Nations Security Council and accepted by Egypt last October, which called, among other things, for free and open transit through the canal without discrimination, and insulation of the operation of the canal from the politics of any country."

Ready to Back Israel

Otherwise, the communique said that Eisenhower and Mollet expressed pleasure "as old friends" at meeting again.

Mollet came to Washington reportedly ready to back Israel's demands for security safeguards against any new military action by Egypt in advance of Israeli withdrawal of its forces out of disputed Middle East territory.

Eisenhower, on the other hand, had said before the conferences that Israel already had received the maximum assurance it could reasonably expect, and he had called anew for withdrawal of Israeli forces lest the UN be forced to resort to "pressure."

In the communique, Eisenhower and Mollet indicated that they had made progress toward healing the rift in relations between their two countries which developed when France joined British and Israeli forces last fall in an attack on Egypt.

The United States had protested that action and demanded withdrawal of the troops of all three nations. Britain and France complied.

Israel still has not fully done so.

The communique said Eisenhower and Mollet, together with their top advisers, had engaged "in a friendly exchange of views in an atmosphere which reflected the long-standing and friendly ties between the two countries."

Talks Prolonged

The talks between the two men had been scheduled to end yesterday. They were prolonged by a day, however, apparently to review the latest developments in the Israeli troop withdrawal crisis.

Shortly after the joint statement was handed to newsmen, Eisenhower escorted Mollet to an automobile waiting to take him to the airport. Eisenhower, bareheaded and without a topcoat despite a cold drizzle, half ran back to his office.

Mollet took off for New York shortly thereafter with assurance from Secretary of State Dulles that his talks here had "increased the area of understanding" between France and the United States.

Say Reds Preparing New Blast at Tito

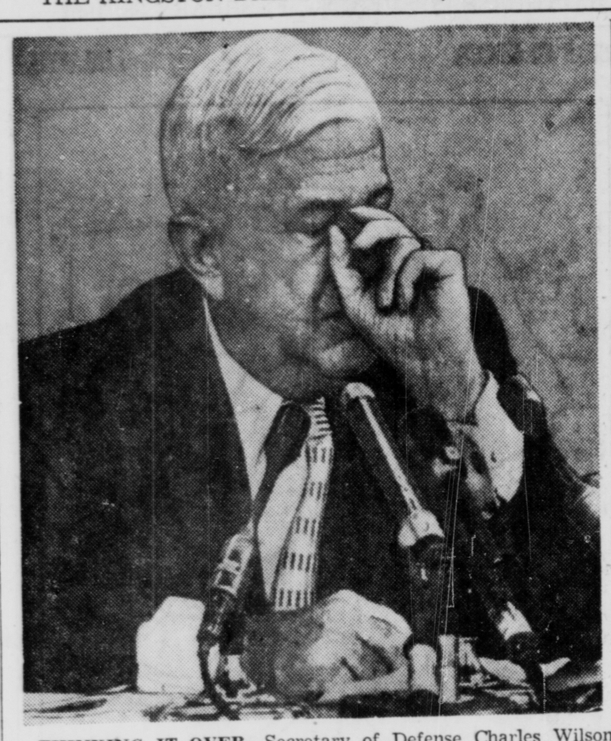

Moscow, Feb. 28 (AP) — The Soviet Union is preparing a new blast at Yugoslavia, informed sources said today.

These informants say the lines of the attack already have been laid down by the Kremlin in the newly widening rift between Moscow and Belgrade over Communist ideology. Tito stands for "national" — independently developing — communism which does not recognize the Kremlin as the all-powerful center of the creed.

The Soviet Union cannot afford, the informants said, to permit recent Yugoslav statements to go unanswered, even though these statements have not been published in Moscow. One of the statements came this week from Yugoslav Foreign Minister Koca Popovic, accusing the Soviet Union of trying to discredit and isolate Yugoslavia.

Relations, particularly on the Communist party level, between Belgrade and Moscow have been worsening ever since the Hungarian revolution. President Tito's Yugoslav Communists have not retreated from their stand in favor of "national communism," which the Kremlin apparently thinks is one of the major causes behind ferment in the satellites.

Dancer Found Dead

Lynn, Mass., Feb. 28 (AP)—The body of Thomas Kearns, 48, former New York song and dance man, was found today beside a Boston & Maine Railroad embankment in East Lynn and police first at the scene believed he had been slain. Kearns was badly beaten about the face. His right arm was bound with a rope. The body was discovered by a passerby, Charles Hatworth, who was walking to work. Identification was quickly made by neighbors. Kearns, who had varied occupations of late years, was in New York during the 1930's. Besides his entertainment work he acted as a publicity man.

Premature Crying

Georgetown, Ky., Feb. 28 (AP) —There wasn't much anyone could do for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mulberry's baby when he began crying at a local hospital—he hadn't been born. Dr. H. G. Wells, the attending physician, said it was the first time he had heard a baby cry before birth although other cases are on record. He said the eight-pound, 13-ounce boy began crying about an hour before his birth Tuesday.

Two Ex-Convicts Held in Petty Cash Killings

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 28 (AP)—Joseph L. Taborsky, who was freed in 1955 from a state prison death cell, and an ex-convict buddy were held today as the execution killers of six persons in petty cash holdups since Dec. 15.

State Police Commissioner John C. Kelly said one of the two admitted the killings yesterday. Kelly declined to say which one confessed "because our investigation is not yet completed."

In all but one of the killings the victims were shot in the head. In two holdups, four victims were forced to kneel on the floor and were shot in the heads This is a method of execution used by the Chinese.

When Taborsky and 33-year-old Arthur Culombe of Hartford were picked up Saturday police recovered eight guns from them.

Kelly said they will be booked on murder charges today.

The 33-year-old Taborsky, who moved to Brooklyn, N. Y., after his release from prison, was convicted of killing a liquor store dealer, Louis L. Woolson, in June, 1951. The state's case was based on evidence given by Taborsky's brother, Albert, who admitted he drove the get-away car.

But Albert was adjudged insane in prison and Taborsky's appeal that the brother's testimony at the trial was groundless was upheld by the State Supreme Court.

A new trial was ordered, but the state dropped prosecution because its case rested with Albert.

Taborsky went free after four years in a death cell.

Woman, Teenager Sought in Slaying

Philadelphia, Feb. 28 (AP)—Police seeking the identity of a slain boy whose body was found in a cardboard box on a vacant lot turned their attention today to a report that a woman and a male teen-ager "unloaded something" from a car near the lot.

Detective Lt. William Loveoy said the lead was provided by a motorist who said he saw the two late Sunday afternoon.

The body of the boy, about four or five, was found by a college student on Tuesday. Dr. Joseph Spelman, the city's chief medical examiner, said the boy was beaten to death, and that he had been dead two or three days. The body was unclothed but wrapped in a blanket.

Lovejoy said that his informant described the woman as heavily built, of medium stature and between 40 and 50 years old. Her companion was 13 or 14 years old and as tall as the woman.

This tip came soon after the collapse of a theory that the unidentified boy might have been Steven Craig Damman, who was kidnaped at a Long Island, N. Y. supermarket in 1955. He was then nearly three years old.

Will Propose Tax Bill To Help Small Business

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Sen. Barrett (R-Wyo) said today a special group of Republican senators will offer their own proposal for special tax relief for businesses with annual incomes of less than $25,000.

"We want to lower taxes for the little fellow without raising present levels for other corporations," Barrett said in an interview.

That, he explained, is why he and Sens. Capehart (R-Ind), Schoeppel (R-Kan) and Potter (R-Mich) withdrew yesterday as cosponsors of a small business tax relief bill offered by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) and numerous senators of both parties.

Fulbright proposed to lower the normal tax from the present 30 per cent to 22 per cent for corporations with annual incomes of $25,000 or less.

At the same time, Fulbright proposed a boost in the corporation surtax from 22 to 31 per cent. The surtax applies to corporation income above $25,000.

Gets Checkup

Tokyo, Feb. 28 (AP) — Tanzan Ishibashi, who resigned as Japan's prime minister Saturday because of ill health, entered a hospital today for a thorough checkup. Doctors said results would not be known for two or three days. Ishibashi, 72, was prime minister for only 63 days and was confined to his bed for 24 of them after an attack of bronchial pneumonia. He resigned after his doctor said he was suffering also from a weakened heart and would require at least two months rest. Foreign Minister Nobusuke Kishi was elected to succeed Ishibashi.

What American statesman was imprisoned in London Tower?

Henry Laurens (1724-1792), South Carolina merchant, planter and statesman of Huguenot descent, was confined in the Tower of London fifteen months.

On October 21, 1778, Laurens, a former Vice President of South Carolina and President of the Continental Congress, was chosen to go to Holland to negotiate a $10,000,000 loan and a treaty of amity and commerce. After a long delay he sailed from Philadelphia August 13, 1780, in the brigantine Mercury, which was captured off Newfoundland on September 3 by the British frigate Vestal. Laurens threw his diplomatic pouch into the sea but not soon enough to escape the notice of his vigilant captors, who fished it out and found a projected treaty with Holland. Laurens was taken to London, given a grueling examination by the ministry, which denied him diplomatic immunity, and put him in the Tower of London October 6, 1780. Discovery of the proposed treaty caused Great Britain to declare war against the Netherlands a few months later.

There was a resident in a swank apartment who fancied that a live alligator was lurking outside his penthouse every morning.

"Darndest hallucination I ever heard of," admitted his psychiatrist, "but if anybody can cure you, it's me."

Five visits later the doctor felt he had made astonishing progress, and it was with a jaunty step that he came around for Visit No. 6. There was no sign of the patient, however, so the doctor made inquiries of the building superintendent.

"Haven't you heard?" sighed the superintendent. "When poor Mr. Jones came out of his penthouse yesterday afternoon, an alligator ate him."

Food, Blankets Dropped to 100 Cut Off by Flood

(By The Associated Press)

Food and blankets were dropped last night to 100 marooned by a flood in the little north central Washington town of Wilson Creek.

The remainder of the community's 275 residents found shelter in scattered outlying homes.

Three Drops Made

Three emergency drops to the men, women and children who took refuge in the town's high school and Presbyterian church were made from an air force helicopter sent from Spokane, 110 miles to the east.

The helicopter pilot reported the evacuees needed the blankets and food. He dropped enough food for supper and breakfast.

Several trucks were trying to find a high route into the area to carry more supplies.

Although the high school and church were high and dry, roads leading to the flooded town were cut. Some residents escaped before waters were too high or by way of railroad tracks into the village.

15 Feet Underwater

The town still lay under one to 15 feet of water which boiled into it yesterday from normally tranquil Crab Creek, overflowing with the runoff from melting snow.

Most areas in the Washington-Oregon-Idaho flood zone reported an easing of the situation or at least no increase in the threat. Water was high in a number of spots and a continuing run-off could cause further damage.

The major rivers of the area were not creating any great threat. Most of the trouble came from small streams that couldn't handle the heavy increase in water.

Idaho National Guardsmen discontinued sandbagging duty at Shoshone and Gooding as the Little Wood River hit its peak. Women had joined in the task of fighting to keep the stream in its channel at Gooding.

Rent Controls

Carlino that controls be dropped on apartments renting for $150 a month or more as they become vacant. Weaver said this "strikes at the very heart of rent control."

Carlino, commission chairman who presided at the hearing, questioned Weaver for 45 minutes in an obvious attempt to fix blame on the Democratic administration in New York city for the sub-standard conditions that Weaver said existed.

Harriman seeks to plug what he decribes as "loopholes" in the present rent law that allow abuses by landlords.

Both Harriman and the GOP agree that the present law should be continued for the next two years. But the Republicans are opposed to strengthening the law, contending it is an "emergency" measure and not designed to eliminate or curb sub-standard housing.

Carlino contended that New York city, "if it wishes," could move against unscrupulous landlords through its building authority.

Weaver asserted that some landlords had profits "so high" they were willing to absorb repeated fines, because of the profits, and "even jail sentences."

Weaver defended the Harriman administration plan for use of 1954—rather than 1953—equalization rates in fixing rents on one and two-family houses.

gendyke, retired employe of Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp., and former candidate for trustee was nominated for a two year trusteeship. He served as village assessor for six years.

Cornelius Cox of Barclay Heights, a newcomer to the local political scene, will seek election to the one year unexpired term left vacant by the resignation of Joseph E. Vozdik. Mr. Cox is employed as a mason and bricklayer by Cornelius Lynch, Saugerties contractor.

It was reported that over 100 names were signed on the nomination petition which must be filed with the village clerk, Gerald L. Snyder by Friday, March 8.

Frank Naccarato offered the nominations and party stalwart, Louis P. Francello, local attorney made the opening address of the convention.

Served Three Terms

Former mayor Holmes served for three terms from 1949 to 1955 when he was defeated by Mayor Simmons by 41 votes. At that time a new record for voting was established in the village when 1,604 cast ballots. Mr. Holmes was a school teacher in Catskill for many years prior to operating his monument business full time. In 1956 he was a trustee of the board of education in Saugerties Central School system.

Opposing the Independent slate on the Citizen's Protective Party ticket will be Robert S. Russell, John F. Carnright and Eugene F. Thornton, all seeking reelection as trustees.

Henry Schroeder, appointed village trusteee in December to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mr. Vozdik, is seeking the one year unexpired term on the CPP ticket.

Excused

Claims Teamsters Refused Support Over Pinball Law

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Stanley W. Earl, Portland city commissioner, testified today that Clyde Crosby, Teamsters Union boss in Oregon, opposed his 1956 election because Earl refused to support a pinball license ordinance.

"He told me if I didn't support pinball licensing the Teamsters Union would oppose me in the election," Earl said.

Ordinance Not Passed

Earl said the proposed ordinance was never passed.

Earl described himself as a life-long member of various other unions.

The commissioner testified before the special Senate committee investigating racketeering in labor-management relations.

From James B. Elkins, a Portland gambler, the senators had received two days of testimony that some officials of the teamsters union and others tried to "muscle in" on rackets in Portland.

Elkins said this outside group tried to oust the police chief and succeeded in defeating the city's mayor.

Earl related that in the election he was actively opposed by the Oregon Joint Council of Teamsters, the teamsters newspaper, and by tavern operators and others who he said were influenced by the teamsters.

Opposed Machines

But he said he continued to keep political support from "rank-and-file union members," although opposed by the teamsters leadership.

Earl said he had been an active opponent of pinball machines in Portland for a number of years. He said the teamsters union displayed no interest in "organizing pinballs" until 1955.

Then, he said, Crosby came to him and asked support for a pinball licensing ordinance. He said the request was coupled with a threat of political opposition if he didn't.

"I guess he thought since I was from labor, I'd be their champion," Earl said. But he said he continued to oppose pinball licensing.

Earl said he had been a member of the Carpenters and International Wood Workers Unions and now belonged to the State, County and Municipal Workers Union.

A Good Thing

Tulsa, Okla. (AP) — Peggy Crawford, a drugstore saleslady, was somewhat puzzled by a customer who came in asking for a cure of laryngitis. Noting the man's voice was clear and not at all hoarse, she asked: "Do you have laryngitis?" "No," the man shook his head. "It's my wife. She hasn't been able to say a single word for several days." Contrary to most husbands who would be happy with such a situation, this fellow insisted on a cure for his wife's ailment. "It's so quiet around the house I'm getting lonesome," he said.

Psychic?

Spokane, Wash. (AP) — When the chairman called for "some one honest" to draw the door prize at a parent-teacher meeting, Police Sgt. Clifford Payne, the guest speaker, got the job. He promptly reached into the bowl and drew his own number.

Costly Pole

Seattle (AP)—James J. Keesling is getting $1 a day in a rare court award here. The court awarded it because a power pole cross-arm extends over his property line. Keesling complained that it marred the view from his home.

Rocca Tosses Murphy In Wrestling Feature

Use Back-Breaker To Win First Fall

Antonino Rocca, 227, the brilliant Barefoot Boy from the Argentine, did everything expected of him by wrestling aficionados at jampacked municipal auditorium last night.

He gave his passionate admirers 21 minutes and 35 seconds of his magnificent presence in clubbing Irish (Skull) Murphy into submission in a best-of-three falls headliner. Then he topped off a breathless night by indulging in a few eye-popping calisthenics after the bout was over.

For the record, Rocca clamped his famous "back breaker" on Murphy to win the first fall in 15:20, a mite longer than he usually dallies with an opponent. Murphy squared it at 2:30 of the second fall with a shoulder press. Then Rocca polished off the bald-headed Irishman in 3:45 to wind up the evening performance.

A Versatile Lad

Rocca opened his bag of tricks for those who were watching him for the first time and the reaction was amazing. Among other items:

1. He unleashed his war whoop and reached up and slapped Murphy across the puss with his bare feet. (This was a blow to Murphy's dignity and made him very angry.)

2. He leaped on Murphy's shoulders for a jet-propelled piggy-back ride.

3. He writhed and rolled on the canvas and clamped his leg scissors on Murphy's shining pate. Murphy could hardly breathe.

4. He leaped to the corner ringposts and leered while Murphy was slowly emerging from the forture of the "back breaker."

Even for $2.50 ringside, that was quite enough.

Fargo-Stevens Win

Wild Man Fargo, 220, of Idaho and Don Stevens, 225, Santa Monica, Calif., retained their world tag-team title with a 2-1 decision over the pretenders to the throne—Jackie Nichols, 225, Boston and Arnold Skoaland, 229, White Plains.

The two lovely blondes took the first fall of the riotous match in 18:35. Nichols and Skoaland scored the qualizer in 11:45. Three minutes and 20 seconds it was all over, with Fargo and Stevens the winners and still champions.

Cowboy Rocky Lee, a 235-pounder out of Del Rio, Texas, used a version of the Verne Gagne "sleeper" to pin Len Rossi, 219, Utica, in 23:50 of the 30-minute time limit opener. Lee, a talented thespian, injected moments of high comedy into the match.

Promoter Ted Bayly took one fast look at the size of the crowd and said he would return in two weeks.

Lawrence Cracks 702 In Central Rec Major

His 279 Solo New Individual Mark

Bill Lawrence of the league-leading Tony's Pizzeria squad rolled the first seven-hundred triple of his career—702—and set a new solo mark (279) for the Central Rec Major.

The 279 eclipsed by two pins the former high of 277 held by Charlie Manfro. Lawrence had other sets of 217 and 206 in the big 30-framer.

Lawrence fired nine strikes in a row before a slightly "high" hit left the 4-pin standing in the 10th frame. His ninth toss had been a cave-in strike, leading his mates to think in terms of a 300.

Tony's Regain Lead

Lawrence's cluster and a 623 effort by George Shufeldt helped Tony's to a 2964 triple and 3-0 win over Prospect Dairy to slide back into first place by a half game.

The scores by teams:

Prospect Dairy (0) — Frank Bruno 522, Ed Esposito 221-570, Don Sickler 216-603, Fred Schryver 225-200-595, Frank Grimaldi 202-536; 981-937-908—2826.

The current storm over basketball officiating recalls Leonard Koppett's sparkling comment on today's game.

"Most people look at a basketball game and they're watching 10 players and two referees. They're wrong. Actually, there are 12 referees down there, only two of them never take a shot. Some people think referees ought to get more pay. They're wrong. Look at all the help they get doing their job."

• Of Men and Mice:

Coach Sam Kalloch, who could use a good press these days, ingratiated himself with Port Jervis press box observers by calling Al Osowick of Port Jervis High "the best basketball player I've ever seen in my 35 years of watching and coaching the sport. And that includes Monty Stickles, Mickey Burkoski and Dick Tyler." That's a large order and perhaps Osowick merits it. But when Sam started comparisons, how come he left Ronnie Scheffel off the list? Has the DUSO League had a better player than Scheffel in the post-war period? . . . Mrs. Anthony J. (Wiggie) de Lisio finished 15th in a field of nearly 100 amateur women golfers in the recent St. Petersburgh Open and was sixth in the Class A Amateur division. Her current handicap on the 6150-yard Sunset Country Club course is 10. . . . While on the subject of golf, the 1957 Social-Golf calendar announced by Wiltwyck Country Club is one of the most comprehensive ever for an area club. . . . J. W. Johnson is the new golf chairman at Twaalfskill, successor to Floyd W. Clint and Walter S. Van Wagenen will handle the Woodstock Country Club tournament chores this year.

• Some Famous Baseball 'Firsts':

Someone once said that "as nearly as any game can be perfect, baseball is perfect." The logic of that stand perhaps is best supported by the fact that the basic rules of the game have been standing for a long, long time and no important changes have been made for many years. In essence, the game today is the same as was played in the 19th century, though the game did experience many changes and improvements in the late years of that century and the early 1900s. The following are some famous baseball "firsts":

1888—Batsmen credited base-hit when batted ball hit base-runner.

1889—Batsmen entitled to first base on four "called balls."

1891—Substitution of players permitted at any time in game.

1892—Sunday baseball introduced by National League.

1893—Pitching distance increased from 50 to 60 feet, 6 inches.

1894—Bunts declared "strikes" after rolling foul.

1899—Pitchers forced to throw to first base after making feint, under penalty of balk.

1900—Five-sided home plate introduced to help umpires judge balls and strikes.

1901—Foul strike rule introduced by National League.

1907—Catchers shin guards introduced by Roger Bresnahan of the Giants.

1917—First Sunday game in New York played by National League clubs.

1920—Batsman given credit for home run when game-winning hits in last of ninth leaves park. Runs-batted-in added to boxscores and league records.

1926—Pitcher permitted to dry hands on rosin bag; minimum home run distance increased from 235 feet to 250 feet.

1929—Loud-speaker amplifiers used for first time at major league game by Giants at Polo Grounds on Aug. 25.

1957—Everyone agreed Giants wouldn't win NL pennant this year.

Maroon, Middies Vie For Playoff Position

Friday Winner To Play Albany

Whether the season will end or continue for Kingston High hinges on the outcome of Friday night's games at Middletown when the Maroons oppose the Middies in their last regularly scheduled game of the season.

The same 'do-or-die' situation confronts the Middies who are fighting the locals for the remaining spot in the Intersectionals basketball playoffs. The winner of the tilt will go on to post-season play, while the victim will pack it in for another year.

Both clubs have identical 8-7 records against loop competition. Since Poughkeepsie High chose to bypass the tourney, the bid will fall to either KHS or Middletown.

For No. 2 Spot

The successful team will be Section Nine's No. 2 representative and will meet Section Two's top team, Albany High, at the Troy Field House March 8. The other opening round match will be staged at Kate Walton Field House the same evening and will bring together Newburgh Free Academy and either Nott Terrace or Mont Pleasant of Schenectady.

Kingston's biggest headache will be trying to stop Jim Merritt, the Blue and White's great backcourt whiz. Merritt produced 36 points on his visit here which stands as the top individual effort on the field house floorboards this year. Later he tallied 45 against Fallsburgh to tie the third high single game record for the league. He's currently third in scoring with 321 points for a 21.4 average.

Coach Jack Gilligan expects to have his team 'up' for the vital duel. His starting combination of Bob Smith, Larry Johnson, Tony Grimaldi, George Uhl and Bob Strong are jelling at peak efficiency and will be counted on again to carry the brunt of the load.

Could Finish Fourth

A Kingston victory will also insure the locals of at least a tie for fourth place which will be a noteworthy accomplishment after their disastrous start. Right now they are in a four-way deadlock for the spot.

Two other games highlight the final evening's schedule—Newburgh (12-3) at Liberty (8-7) and Poughkeepsie (11-4) at Ellenville (8-7). The other contests sends Port Jervis ((11-4) to Fallsburgh (1-14).

Newburgh can clinch the DUSO championship with a victory, but the verdict may not come easy. The always-troublesome Redskins want the win themselves as insurance against a possible Ellenville triumph. The two teams are snarled for the DUSO's No. 2 berth in the Class B Sectionals which also gets under way next week.

Port and Poughkeepsie still have hopes of tying NFA for first, but need assistance from Liberty. A Newburgh defeat coupled with wins by the Porters and Pioneers could wind the race up in a three-way tie for the first time in league history.

KBA Tourney Total Hits 98

Final entry figures for the 1957 Kingston Bowling Association tournament show a drop in team registration but increases in single, double and all-events, tournament manager, Mannie Colao, said.

The team entry of 98 teams is 14 under the 1956 figure. But the 100 doubles represent an increase of 17 and the 186 singles overshadow the 145 singles last year.

The all-events entries jumped from 134 to 171.

Factors Cited

Colao attributed the drop in team registrations to many factors, not the least of which were the confusion and the layoff of leagues because of the transfer of alleys.

The tournament manager said the KBA was gratified to see increases in the minor events.

"The bowlers generally pay their own freight in these events," he said, "and the high entry list proves there is still a healthy interest in the game among the rank and file."

The tournament gets under way on Monday, March 11, at the Ferraro Bowlerama. Singles and doubles will be rolled at the Central Recreation.

Celtics Can Cinch Eastern Division

(By The Associated Press)

The Boston Celtics can clinch their first Eastern title in the National Basketball Assn. with a victory tonight over the New York Knickerbockers. That is, assuming the second-place Philadelphia Warriors lose to Minneapolis.

But a Boston win tonight and another tomorrow against the Warriors at Boston would salt the championship away for the potent Celtics.

Middlecoff Quits Tourney

Baton Rouge, La., Feb. 28 (AP)—National Open champion Cary Middlecoff was absent today as the $15,000 Baton Rouge Open got underway on a discordant note.

The fidgety ex-dentist from Memphis, now playing out of Dallas, claimed he was "tired and underweight." His next start, he said at his Memphis home, would be in the St. Petersburg, Fla., open, the next stop on the winter tour week after next.

Tournament officials said Middlecoff had signed a commitment indicating he would enter the sixth annual 7-hole affair here. A PGA committee will study the matter and ask Middlecoff why he didn't enter.

Jack Burke, 1956 Masters golf winner with 289, finished second in 1952 when he shot a 290.

Ellsworth Said It

Police Cagers Are Fit, Ready for Wicks Hose

"That's a hot one . . . the Firemen planning to use extension ladders when they play us tonight at the auditorium," said Manager Len Ellsworth of the Kingston Patrolmen's Association basketball.

The patrolmen and smoke eaters are scheduled to play in a March of Dimes exhibition at 8:30.

"So they want ladders?" added Ellsworth. "Let them have them . . . one at each end . . . and we'd still send them back to the firehouse to practice pole climbing."

Meanwhile, Manager Ray Whitbeck announced the addition of three new "stars" to the Wicks lineup — Gordon Craig Sr., Len Sickler Jr. and William Boyce. All members of the Wicks crew were requested to report to the municipal auditorium at 8 o'clock for pre-game oxygen treatment.

Ellsworth pointed with pride to his tight, nine-man lineup.

"Those other guys (Wicks Engine) must be in pretty bad shape," he went on. "I see where they have announced the names of 18 players . . . and others. We'll have just nine players and we'll run them off the floor right up those extension ladders, if they really are going to use them."

The eight other Police starters besides Ellsworth include Albert Hutton, Lou Sapp, Bernie Fowler, Bill Slover, Joseph Kivlan, Everett Emmick, Bill Snyder and Big Jack Houghtaling, who can hide a basketball in the palm of his hand.

"This'll be the biggest rout since Bull Run," Ellsworth quipped, "and I hope they bring their inhalators and first aid equipment. After we get through with that gang, the auditorium will look like a battlefield."

Ellsworth revealed his starting lineup as Kivlan and Slover at the forwards; Houghtaling, center; Fowler and Hutton, guards.

"After these fellows run up a 25-point lead, I'll send in the reserves and we'll coast." The guy sounded like he meant it.

Calhoun Clips Charley Cotton

Denver, Feb. 28 (AP)—Although the margin was close, middleweight Rory Calhoun protected his record of only a single setback in his professional ring career while pushing his victory string to 28.

He took four rounds to get rolling, then hacked out a split decision over Charley Cotton of Toledo in their 10-round televised match before 2,305 in the City Auditorium Arena last night.

The 22-year-old Calhoun, from White Plains, N. Y., had the edge in both youth and weight, scaling 160 pounds to 155½ for Cotton, 26-year-old veteran of 55 pro fights. Calhoun is No. 5 in the 160-pound rankings while Cotton is not among the first 10.

Duke and Wake Forest first met in a basketball game in 1906. Duke then was known as Trinity.

Highland, Marlboro Could Bar Playoff for Pennant in UCAL

The inevitable playoff for the UCAL basketball championship seems a lead pipe cinch today as teams prepare for their last night of regular season action Friday.

The only thing that will prevent a second straight playoff between co-leaders Saugerties High and Rondout Valley Central is an upset. The job of pulling the shocker is in the laps of Marlboro Central and Highland High. If neither comes through with a surprise, a playoff will be held next Tuesday at Onteora Central's gym.

Its common knowledge that the Sawyers and Rondout are 10-1 in the race, having beaten each other. On Friday Saugerties plays at Marlboro and Rondout at Highland.

Marlboro Tougher

The Sawyers appear to have the rougher assignment. The fruitgrowers are 5-5 and are currently playing their best brand of ball. They have 1,000-point man Richie Mandia, plus a pair of high-scoring forwards in Bob Paltridge and Darryl Eckert.

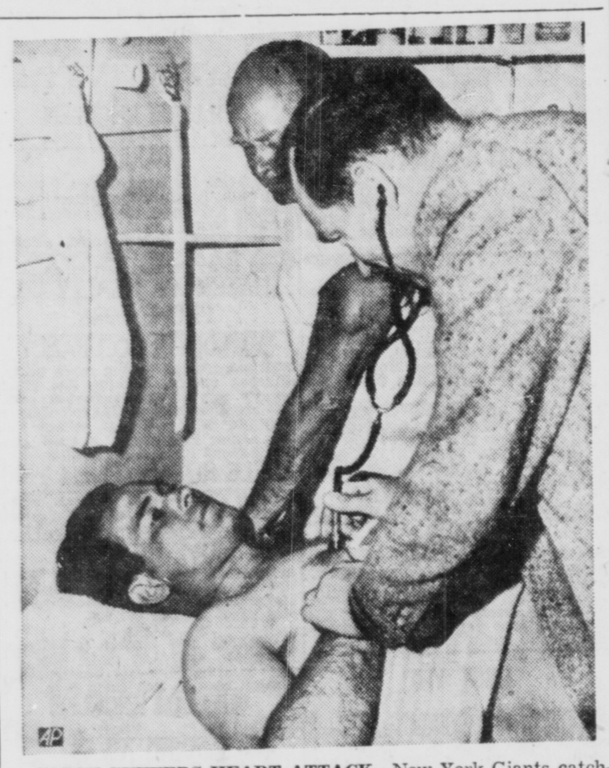

But Saugerties is also red-hot. Coach Bud Smith's crew have won their last eight in a row since dropping a three-point decision to Rondout. Overall, they boast an impressive 15-2 log, including a 95-57 win over Marlboro.

Has 16-1 Record

Coach Chick Meehan's Kerhonkson cagers posses the best record in the Hudson Valley—16-1—and have taken three in a row since losing to the Sawyers by two points. In their first meeting with Highland, the final score was a lopsided 68-49. Highland's UCAL record is a poor 3-8.

Wallkill (2-9) is at New Paltz (0-10) in the other game on the docket. The Huguentos have that game and a postponed tussle with Marlboro left to break into the win column. They have lost 16 games altogether.

Onteora ends its season at home against Catskill also on Friday. The Indians want the win to make it a clean six-game sweep over non-league foes. Coach Ed Witko's team will be seeking win No. 14 as against 4 defeats. They finished the UCAL season in third place with an 8-4 slate.

SARNI SUFFERS HEART ATTACK—New York Giants catcher Bill Sarni is examined by Dr. R. D. Barker at Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 25 after the backstop had complained of chest pains. Looking on is trainer Doc Bowman. On Feb. 27 it was announced that Sarni, 29, had suffered a heart attack and that his playing career was over. (AP Wirephoto)

Ramblers, Cedar Aces Play Title Tilt Friday

Ramblers, first round winners and Cedar Aces, second round champions, will meet for the Boys' Club Junior basketball league title Friday at the George Washington school.

A 6:30 p. m. preliminary game between the Globetrotters and Blue Jays will precede the main attraction.

The loop takes in boys 13 to 15 years old.

Colorful Guns

Chicago (AP) — Shotgun gun stocks are taking on a new hue. William G. Krebs, representative of a Worcester, Mass., arms manufacturing firm, introduced a brilliant "hunter safety" red lacquered stock on a .410 shotgun at the National Sporting Goods Assn. Show. The stock also is furnished in green, blue, yellow, black and blond. He says it is a new feature designed to develop hunter safety.

Glens Falls Man Captured After 50-Mile Chase

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—State police arrested a Glens Falls man at gunpoint early today, on theft and assault charges, after a wild, 50-mile automobile chase marked by police gunfire.

One police car was heavily damaged in a crash. The driver of another police car said the chase hit 105 miles an hour at one point. A woman who had been beaten, allegedly by the Glens Falls man, rode along with police.

Murray McCauley, 32, was arrested in Latham near Albany about an hour and a half after he first was spotted in Hudson Falls by troopers. He was taken to Saratoga Springs and charged with grand larceny in the theft of a car and third degree assault.

Police said McCauley broke into the home of Miss Margaret Price at Hudson Falls last night and beat the woman. Police said she was a former friend of McCauley.

When the man left, Miss Price called troopers. They took her to a peace justice court where a warrant for McCauley's arrest was issued. While police were returning the woman home, she spotted McCauley's car. Police gave chase. Miss Price went along.

A Westinghouse Electric Corporation giant transformer undergoing tests in the company's huge sound-insulated vault at Sharon, Pa.

It takes a giant step up

It takes a giant transformer to step up electric power, and it takes a giant medium to step up sales power. That medium is the daily newspaper, a giant that lives in every town.

The amount of sales power you get out of an advertising medium depends on its coverage, availability, readership (or listenership or viewership), flexibility and believability.

Ingredients like these can transform an ad campaign into a profit for the retailer, wholesaler, distributor, or manufacturer. And newspapers have these ingredients in abundance.

With newspapers, you can reach just about every prospect for your merchandise. You can gear your advertising to the weather, to readers' special interests, to time, to place — to suit your own convenience. And best of all — newspapers are the action medium.

That is why all advertisers invested more than $3,305,000,000* in newspapers last year — more than in TV, radio, magazines and outdoor combined.

Step right up and step up your sales power. Use the daily newspaper.

All business is local . . . and so are all newspapers.

February Bowing Out With Cold; 16 in City Today

February, after hinting Tuesday that it approached a breath of spring just around the bend, decided today to bow out in character.

It brought a low temperature of 16 in the city at 6 a. m., and treated the county likewise. A low of 15 was recorded in the Ashokan reservoir area.

The downtrend started after 8 a. m., yesterday when the city engineer's office recorded a temperature of 54 degrees. It grew gradually cooler through the day and by 11:30 p. m., the mercury had dropped to 19 above.

Tuesday's high of 60 around the noon hour was a record for the date. A mild drop began after that until yesterday morn when the mercury started on a faster decline.

A temperature of 24 degrees was recorded at the city engineer's office at 10:45 a. m. today.

Balky Landing Gear Keeps 26 In Air 6 Hours

Detroit, Feb. 28 (AP)—Twenty-six persons were trapped in the sky for six hours before one final effort locked a balky landing gear in place and allowed a Capital Airlines Constellation to glide in at dusk for a safe landing.

The four-engine plane's five man crew used water, coffee and milk to build up hydraulic pressure to force the Constellation's nose wheel into place for the landing.

21 Passengers

After the landing, the crew and 21 passengers alighted smiling and thankful. The passengers appeared unaware that their plight had prompted emergency crash rescue operations at Milwaukee and Detroit airports during the five hours the plane flew from Gen. Mitchell Field to Willow Run to burn up gasoline.

The plane was Flight 930 from Minneapolis to Philadelphia, via Detroit and Milwaukee. It touched down at 6:05 p. m. (EST) and immediately was impounded by civil aeronautics officials for a complete inspection.

Knew It Was Locked

Capt. William Richie, 38, of Minneapolis, the plane's pilot, said he knew the landing gear had an air lock moments after takeoff from Milwaukee when he tried to raise the nose wheel.

He immediately radioed for aid and a special Viscount carrying hydraulic engineers from Capital's Washington headquarters was rushed to within radio communication. The landing gear was repaired while engineers gave instructions to the crew over Lake Erie.

Fifteeen minutes after the wheel locked in place the ship touched ground with its main wheels, rolled some 50 yards with its nose high in the air and eased down on the nose wheel. It held and without applying brakes, Richie coasted up to 10 ambulances, five fire trucks and scores of police cars on the runway.

'Conscience Money'

Greensburg, Pa., Feb. 27 (AP)—Here's a tax collector who does not know what to do with $50. Albert Booth, tax collector of Hempfield Township, reported yesterday a woman who hid her face came into his office, left an unmarked envelope containing the $50 and a note which read: "For conscience money tax of 1956." Booth says there's no law permitting him to accept such funds and he's hoping the woman will come back for her money.

Says Some Brink's Money May Be Unspent

Houston, Tex., Feb. 28 (AP)—The National Assn. of County and Prosecuting Attorneys Convention was told yesterday that more than one million dollars of the Brink's robbery loot may remain hidden and unspent.

Garrett Byrne of Boston, the prosecutor who obtained life sentences for nine men who took part in the Brink's robbery, said he thinks confederates who did not take part in the actual robbery may still be at large. He said those who took part made a pact that a show of wealth by one would be a death sentence for himself and his family.

Byrne said of the $11,218,211.29 in cash stolen, only $90,000 has been recovered. All the recovered money was in new bills, he said.
